

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JANUARY 28, 2024

The Cure of a Demoniac

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the Sabbath he entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

Living God's Word

We pray at every Mass the Lord's Prayer, which concludes: "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil." The power of evil has been overcome by Jesus' saving death, but we continue to pray that it does not find a home in us, in our Church, or in our society.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

In Jesus' day, demonic possession was not uncommon. Mark presents Jesus as one who takes on the evil spirits, overturning their possession of this man. Jesus has declared war against the kingdom of Satan. Its hour of ascendancy is coming to an end.

The unclean spirit recognizes Jesus as one with greater power, for it asks, "Have you come to destroy us?" Then it confesses Jesus as the "Holy One of God" (Mark 1:24). Jesus will battle the forces of evil to the death, his death. But what looks like defeat for Jesus will be changed to victory, because the power of God is at work in him.

In the first reading from Deuteronomy, Moses is speaking to the people before they enter the Promised Land. The entire book is his farewell speech to them. He will not go with them. He consoles them, saying that God promises to raise up a prophet like Moses and will speak through him: "I...will put my words into his mouth" (Deuteronomy 18:18).

Jesus is presented to us today as the prophet like Moses, who teaches with the authority of God and whose words are obeyed even by unclean spirits. There is no power on earth or beyond it greater than the power of God at work in him.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

This week is Catholic Schools Week. This annual celebration is an opportunity for us to recognize and give thanks for the important ministry which occurs in our catholic school communities. Our parish is blessed to have as part of its mission and identity our own parochial school. School of the Madeline, opened in 1957, has for over sixty-five years served the needs of our parish and the people of community by handing on the Catholic Faith and forming young men and women spiritually, academically and emotionally. We will always be grateful for the vision of Fr. Dan O'Donoghue and all those who so graciously began this important endeavor. Currently lay teachers and staff minister to the nearly 600 students who make up our School community.

In his 1999 document, The Church in America, Pope John Paul II stressed the importance of Catholic Education when he wrote: "Education can play an outstanding role in promoting the inculturation of the Gospel. Nonetheless, Catholic centers of education, and those, which, although non-denominational, are clearly inspired by Catholic principles, will be able to engage in authentic evangelization only if at all levels "including that of the university", they clearly preserve their Catholic orientation. The content of the education they impart should make constant reference to Jesus Christ and his message as the Church presents it in her dogmatic and moral teaching. Only in this way will they train truly Christian leaders in the different spheres of human activity, and in society, especially in politics, economics, science, art and philosophical reflection. ...Something similar must also be said about Catholic schools, particularly with regard to secondary education: "A special effort should be made to strengthen the Catholic identity of schools, whose specific character is based on an educational vision having its origin in the person of Christ and its roots in the teachings of the Gospel. Catholic schools must seek not only to impart a quality education from the technical and professional standpoint, but also and above all provide for the integral formation of the human person. Given the importance of the work done by Catholic educators, I join the Synod Fathers in gratefully encouraging all those devoted to teaching in Catholic schools, priests, consecrated men and women and committed lay people to persevere in their most important mission. The influence of these educational centers should extend to all sectors of society, without distinction or exclusion.

While our parochial school is one of the primary ways we meet the challenge of handing on the faith in our parish we must also remember those who assist with our Religious Education program. I am grateful for Ms. Emma Scheuerman and Mrs. Kia Scott and their volunteers who work hard to share the faith through our catechetical programs.

In addition to assisting our school age students we also seek to reach out to all our parishioners, particularly those who have grown up in the faith but have had little formation in the faith.

Also, please mark your calendars and plan to join us for the Gala 2024 which will take place on Saturday evening, March 2, 2024. This is a great evening of friends, food and fun. This event is one of the primary fundraisers for our school and assists in helping to keep catholic education available to as many young people as possible. We hope that all of our parishioners will join us for this event We need the participation of all our parish families to make this another successful evening.

Fr. Ed McNulty,
Pastor

STEWARDSHIP

Whose Authority?

A man stands on your front doorstep, holding a Bible:

"Good afternoon. May I share a few words of Christian truth with you?"

"Sure. Where do you get this truth?"

"From the Bible, of course."

"That's your authority? The Bible?"

"Yes, it's the only authority for Christians."

"Can you prove that from the Bible?"

"What do you mean?"

"I mean I don't believe the Bible claims to be the sole rule of faith. Please show me where the Bible claims such a status for itself."

Sometimes the conversation goes more like this:

"Good afternoon. May I share a few words of Christian truth with you?"

"No, I'm a Catholic."

The door closes.

Many door-to-door proselytizers have good intentions. They want to convert you to the "truth"—as they see it. From their perspective, the Bible is the sole authority for the Christian faith. Some are taught that Catholics are prohibited from reading the Bible or know nothing about the scriptures. However, not only do we have full access to the Bible, but we hear segments of it proclaimed every time we celebrate Mass. In today's first reading God gives Moses the right to speak with divine authority to the people of Israel. In today's readings Jesus and Moses are recognized as speaking and acting with the authority of God. Both Jesus and Moses acted as a bridge between the people and God. For us the scriptures are a bridge for God's truth, but so are the sacraments and the lived experience of the Church—what we call Tradition. It is part of our responsibility as disciples of Jesus to learn from the scriptures, to listen attentively at Mass, to read scripture prayerfully for ourselves, and to learn more about the Bible through reading, studying, and learning with others.
