

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

MARCH 19, 2023

As he went along, he saw a man blind from birth. His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

"Neither this man nor his parents sinned," said Jesus, "but this happened so that the works of God might be displayed in him. "As long as it is day, we must do the works of him who sent me. Night is coming, when no one can work. While I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

After saying this, he spit on the ground, made some mud with the saliva, and put it on the man's eyes. "Go," he told him, "wash in the Pool of Siloam" (this word means "Sent"). So the man went and washed, and came home seeing.

His neighbors and those who had formerly seen him begging asked, "Isn't this the same man who used to sit and beg?" Some claimed that he was.

Others said, "No, he only looks like him."

But he himself insisted, "I am the man."

"How then were your eyes opened?" they asked.

He replied, "The man they call Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes. He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed, and then I could see."

"Where is this man?" they asked him.

"I don't know," he said. (John 9:1-12)

Living God's Word

We pray to God as the ineffable light, calling forth from the darkness of fear and prejudice and hatred men and women who choose to live in the light of Christ. We pray God to remove our attraction to the darkness, replacing it with a love for the Light.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

Most of us can recognize times when we are "in the dark" and occasions when we carry darkness in our hearts, just as there are moments when we feel enlightened and find that our vision is clear. It is quite another thing to become identified with darkness or with light. The first words of today's reading from the Letter to the Ephesians stand out for their boldness: "You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord" (Ephesians 5:8).

We get a glimpse of what it means to be light in the Lord both from Samuel, who finally sees as God sees, and in the courageous behavior of the man born blind after Jesus has healed him. Samuel anoints Israel's greatest king, David, and the man born blind comes to faith in Jesus as Lord.

The man born blind is one of those strong figures found in John's Gospel. Like the woman at the well, we never learn his name but we come to know his heart. His speech is straightforward, whether speaking to his neighbors, the Pharisees, or Jesus. You can hear the gradual dawning of faith as he responds to those around him, from the simple "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see" to "He is a prophet," to his answer to Jesus' question about having faith in the Son of man standing before him, "I do believe, Lord" (John 9:15, 17, 38).

In the beginning God spoke. Those first words have never stopped bringing about what they said: "Let there be light" (Genesis 1:3).

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend all parishes in the Diocese of San Diego will be asked to participate in the Annual Lenten Collection. This collection raises funds for the Church in places other than the United States, places like Latin America, where the Church is still recovering from numerous natural disasters, and places like the Holy Land, the birthplace of our faith. Envelopes for this collection have been placed on the counter at the entrance of the church and we invite you to be as generous as possible. You may indicate on the envelope if you would like to designate your contribution to one or more of the four causes included in this collection.

Don't forget our Parish Lenten Penance Service which will take place on Tuesday, March 28th beginning at 7:00pm. We will have a number of priests from the neighboring parishes with us to assist with this celebration.

I would like to thank those who have so generously responded to the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). We are currently working toward our goal of $57,000. If you have not yet made a pledge to the ACA it is not too late and no pledge is too small. Additional ACA brochures and pledge envelopes are available on the counter inside the main entrance to our church. We would like to see as many families participate as possible.

This past Friday, March 17th we celebrated the great feast of St. Patrick and so I thought it might be good to remember a little about who he was. One commentary on the lives of the saints states: "Patrick was born around 385 in Scotland, probably Kilpatrick. His parents were Calpurnius and Conchessa, who were Romans living in Britain in charge of the colonies. As a boy of fourteen or so, he was captured during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep. Ireland at this time was a land of Druids and pagans. He learned the language and practices of the people who held him. During his captivity, he turned to God in prayer. He wrote "The love of God and his fear grew in me more and more, as did the faith, and my soul was rosed, so that, in a single day, I have said as many as a hundred prayers and in the night, nearly the same." Patrick's captivity lasted until he was twenty, when he escaped after having a dream from God in which he was told to leave Ireland by going to the coast. There he found some sailors who took him back to Britain, where he reunited with his family. He had another dream in which the people of Ireland were calling out to him "We beg you, holy youth, to come and walk among us once more." He began his studies for the priesthood. He was ordained by St. Germanus, the Bishop of Auxerre, whom he had studied under for years.

Later, Patrick was ordained a bishop, and was sent to take the Gospel to Ireland. He arrived in Ireland March 25, 433, at Slane.

One legend says that he met a chieftain of one of the tribes, who tried to kill Patrick. Patrick converted Dichu (the chieftain) after Dichu was unable to move his arm until he became friendly to Patrick. Patrick began preaching the Gospel throughout Ireland, converting many. He and his disciples preached and converted thousands and began building churches all over the country. Kings, their families, and entire kingdoms converted to Christianity when hearing Patrick's message. Patrick preached and converted all of Ireland for 40 years. He worked many miracles and wrote of his love for God in Confessions. After years of living in poverty, traveling and enduring much suffering he died March 17, 461. He died at Saul, where he had built the first church.

STEWARDSHIP

Seeing Is Believing

People in Jesus' time thought blindness was caused by sinfulness. In today's Gospel, the Pharisees—the supreme rule-keepers—were far less concerned about the blind man than that Jesus broke the rule of the Sabbath. The rules governing what could and could not be done on the Sabbath seemed more important than rest from labor. When Jesus healed the blind man, the Pharisees labeled them both as sinners. We can be equally judgmental, ranging from annoyance if our grown children do not live their lives exactly as we do, all the way to condemnation of all those of a different religion or political persuasion. The angrier we are, the more blind we are to our lack of charity. Saint Paul says we live in the light of Christ and should try to produce "every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth" (Ephesians 5:9). Rules have their place, but things go amiss when we place the rules above everything else. That's a blindness we cannot afford.
