

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

MARCH 26, 2023

Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, by this time there will be an odor, for he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I said this on account of the people standing around, that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out." The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what he did, believed in him, (John 11:38 - 45)

Living God's Word

Lazarus was given a new lease on life, but that did not make him immortal. Eventually he had to die, just like Jesus, our loved ones, and all of us. Do we believe, with Martha, that our death will be a birth into an even richer experience of new life?

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

James was a new man. When the nurses and his brother told him how close he had come to dying, he realized he'd been given a second chance, a new lease on life. The new Jim was as different from the old Jim as a newborn baby is from a child in the womb. No longer was he alone and confined in the dark spirit of depression. His tomb of illness had become a womb of new life, releasing him from bondage, giving him a spirit of energy and hope, and connecting him with a helping, compassionate community.

When we hear the promises of new life and invitations to believe in this Sunday's scripture it is easy to think of something after we die. But we have already died with Christ in baptism and, like Lazarus, we have received a new lease on life, this time with the Spirit of God dwelling in us. He was raised from his tomb to embrace a new and richer life of following Jesus. Like Lazarus, whose tomb became a womb of new life, we also have "new" and richer lives to live in the Spirit of faith, gratitude, love, and hope.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Each year in the Diocese of San Diego, on the week prior to Holy Week, we celebrate the Chrism Mass. It is during this mass that Cardinal McElroy will bless the oils that will be used during celebrations of the sacraments in our parishes throughout the upcoming year. This year the Chrism Mass will be celebrated on March 30th at 4:00pm at Good Shepherd Parish in Mira Mesa. Representatives from our parish will attend this celebration and receive the Oil of the Sick, the Oil of the Catechumen, and the Sacred Chrism for our parish. The parish will officially receive these oils at our Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper.

I would ask you, during these final weeks of our Lenten Season, to keep in prayer those whom throughout the diocese are in the final stages of their preparation to receive the Sacraments of Initiation at our Easter Vigil.

I hope as many as possible are planning to join us for the celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please note that our parish communal celebration will take place on Tuesday, March 28th at 7:00pm. Once again, this year we will have several priests available to assist with this celebration.

I would like to thank those who have so generously responded to the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). We are drawing closer to our parish goal of $57,000. If you have not yet made a pledge to the ACA it is not too late and no pledge is too small. Additional ACA brochures and pledge envelopes are available on the table inside the main entrance to our church. We would like to see as many families participate as possible.

As you will recall about a year ago our parish participated in a diocesan-wide synod in which we were called to look at our Church and ourselves and reflect on where the Church is called to growth. This diocesan Synod is part of the universal preparation for a Church-wide Synod to be held in Rome in 2024. The responses by our diocese, as well as all the dioceses throughout the world, are being prepared as part of a document which will guide the conversations at the Universal Synod in 2024. If you would like to review the report of our Diocesan Synod it may be found on the Diocesan Web site at: www.diocesansynodsurveyreportfebruary20236.pdf.

This report is available in a number of languages. In addition to the diocesan report, you will also find a report summarizing the conclusions of all the diocese of the United States.

I hope you all are planning to join us for our Holy Week and Easter celebrations. Holy Week begins next Sunday with the celebration of Palm Sunday at all of our scheduled masses. It then continues on Holy Thursday with the Mass of the Lord's Supper beginning at 7:00pm with adoration until 10:00pm.

Then Good Friday we will celebrate the Stations of the Cross at 2:00pm, followed by our Good Friday service at 3:00pm. Holy Saturday we will begin our Celebration of Easter with our Easter Vigil beginning at 8:00pm. (There will NOT be a 5:30pm mass that evening). On Easter Sunday our masses will be at 9:00am and 11:00am. (There will NOT be a 6:00pm mass on Easter Sunday.)

STEWARDSHIP

Not The End

Until the last century most people rarely, if ever, talked openly about sexuality, but all were familiar with death because people died at home. Nowadays discussion about sexuality is common and death is almost taboo. We may be so troubled by death that we substitute other words for it: "Grandpa passed away" or "We lost Uncle David." Today's readings are about death but, more powerfully, about our Lord raising us up from death—death of the spirit in this life, when a person turns from God or becomes apathetic—but also the death of our earthly body. If we do not tackle the "little death" of failure to live as Jesus' disciple, we're unlikely to face bodily death with hope or peace. The Good News of Jesus is that we can rise from the deaths of sinfulness and indifference—right now—and because he died and rose again we can hope for eternal life with him.

Living Stewardship Now

For yourself: Make a will. Plan your own funeral.

For someone you know: Visit a dying or grieving person. Listen to them, pray with them, be a simple comforting presence.

For your parish community: Start or volunteer for a Stephen's (bereavement) ministry.

Eucharistic Miracles Display

Coming to St. Mary Magdalene is an exhibit on Eucharistic miracles, developed by a beatified Italian teenager. The exhibit is part of the legacy of Blessed Carlo Acutis, an Italian teenager who researched and documented Eucharistic miracles from throughout history and around the world before his death from acute leukemia at the age of 15.

Date: Sat, April 15th and Sun, April 16th

Time: After All Masses

Place: St. Mary Magdalene Parish Hall

Cost: Free admission

This photographic exhibit includes historically documented Eucharistic miracles that have occurred in various countries since the Last Supper. These are visible proof of Jesus Christ's Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

Stop by the exhibits and witness how Jesus has miraculously manifested himself throughout the centuries and how this proves He is present body, blood, soul and divinity in the Holy Eucharist. All are welcome, including members of other faiths.
