ASCENSION OF THE LORD

MAY 29, 2022

And he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.'

Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them. While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; and they were continually in the temple blessing God. (Luke 24:46 - 53)

Living God's Word

We may feel that our faith is too new or that we don't pray enough to witness the forgiveness of sins available through Christ. But we who have been clothed and anointed with the Spirit don't need anything else. We can go forth with confident hope to witness that Christ will keep his promise of eternal life.

ASCENSION OF THE LORDA Scriptural Reflection*Reflecting on God's Word

Gavin's piano teacher might just as well have told him to fly around the room. That's how incapable he felt of playing his Bach invention faster. He stared at Mr. Simons in disbelief. "Gavin, what did I just ask you to do?" "You said to play it faster, sir." "Well, why are you sitting there staring at me? What are you waiting for? Play it faster."

In today's two accounts of the ascension of Christ into heaven, the disciples seem to be experiencing the same kind of numbness. Christ is asking them to do the seemingly impossible. While joyful that he had been raised and was ascending to power, perhaps they did not yet have the confidence to be his witnesses "to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8). They had to wait to be filled with the power of the Holy Spirit. What are we waiting for?

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners:

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension. Therefore I invite you to reflect on the words of Pope John Paul II when he wrote: "The event of the Ascension of Jesus made an indelible impression on the memory of the first disciples so that we find their witness to it in the Gospels and in the Acts of the Apostles. Forty days after his resurrection, Jesus led his disciples to the Mount of Olives, "towards Bethany", and "while he blessed them, he parted from them and was carried up to heaven" (Lk 24,50-51). Naturally, they remained looking on high, but were suddenly called back to earth by two angels, "Why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus ... will come in the same way that you have seen him go into heaven". "On earth as it is in heaven": the words which we repeat daily in praying the Our Father express well the condition of the disciples, transformed by the experience of the Easter mystery of Christ. They are to be citizens of both earth and heaven. In fact, Christ in his humanity became the bridge between earth and heaven: He is the mediator between God and man, between the kingdom of heaven and the history of the world. United to him in his Spirit, believers form a new community, the Church, whose nature is both visible and spiritual, pilgrim in the world and sharer in heavenly glory. Among all creatures, Mary, more than any other creature, has been associated with this mystery. As the new Eve from whom is born the new Adam, she shows us the way to live our earthly mission. At the same time, since she was assumed body and soul into heaven, she invites us to tend toward our true home, where the fullness of the love of the Triune God awaits us. While the Church sets out into the deep of the new millennium, she does not lose sight of her polar star which orients her navigation. That star is Christ, the Lord of history. Beside him we find his and our Mother, who does not cease to accompany her children on their earthly pilgrimage. We look to her with sincere hope."

This weekend we also celebrate Memorial Day and remember and express our gratitude for those who have served our nation in the military. I offer for your reflection a brief passage from a presentation that Pope John Paul made to a gathering of military chaplains. In his talk he reminded them that: "The Catholic Church's respect and concern for those involved in military service is clearly expressed in the Second Vatican Council's Pastoral Constitution Gaudium et Spes. There we read: 'Those... who are dedicated to the service of their country and are members of armed forces should regard themselves as ministering to the security and freedom of their peoples, and while they are performing this duty in the right manner they are genuinely contributing to the establishment of peace'."

It is that time of year again, graduation season, so I would like to take the opportunity to express my best wishes to all those in our parish who graduating, either from high school or college, this year. It is my sincere prayer that the gifts and talents you have developed during your years of study will be used in the service of God's people.

Finally, summer is the usual time when things slow down a bit. We are encouraged to relax and spend time with family and friends and generally let our batteries recharge a bit. However, in this more relaxed atmosphere let us not forget that when we come to Church there is still a certain decorum that is expected. Inside Church is never the place to make or receive cell phone calls or text messages. We should always be aware that we come into the presence of Jesus and therefore our dress should reflect a respect for the sacred nature of the Church. Please be aware of the fact that what you just wore to the beach may not be appropriate for mass. Also, please, please do not chew gum in Church. Don't be afraid to give your family member, friend, or neighbor a gentle reminder if they should forget.

Taken From Sight

In biblical texts, a time period lasting forty days, months, or years always represents testing followed by resolution. For example, the Israelites wandered forty years in the desert, Jesus fasted in the wilderness for forty days. Forty days after his resurrection Jesus' ascension completed his earthly ministry: truly God and truly human, he returned to the heavenly kingdom. Early Christian artists depicted the Ascension as Jesus, a lion, conquering a dragon, Satan. Evil and death are not the end. Nowadays, fashionable atheists characterize believers as literalists who think that heaven is just above the clouds. The Church, more wisely, does not dwell on where heaven is, but on Jesus preparing a place for us and his return at the end of time. At every Mass we repeat the mystery of our faith: "Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again." Jesus now intercedes for us and assures us of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit until he returns again.

The Magnificat

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on his humble servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed, the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear Him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, he has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the humble. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children for ever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever.

Amen, Alleluia.
