

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

JUNE 12, 2022

Jesus said to his disciples, "I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will glorify me because it is from me that he will receive what he will make known to you. All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what he will make known to you."

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

Last week we celebrated the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Church. This week's scriptures continue to explore the gift of the Holy Spirit, but this time they focus on how the gift of the Holy Spirit binds the church to God in a holy communion of love.

In John's Gospel we hear of the closeness of the Father and the Son. Jesus says, "Everything the Father has is mine" and that the Spirit will pass on what Jesus has to us. The Letter to the Romans helps us realize what it is that we have received: The holy love that is shared between Father and Son "has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us" (Romans 5:5). Not only does our God "delight in the human race" (Proverbs 8:31), care for us, and crown us with glory and honor (Psalm 8:6); through the gift of the Spirit God binds us in a holy communion to the eternal love of the Trinity.

Living God's Word

Week after week we partake of the sacrament of Holy Communion. In this sacrament the Holy Spirit continues to pour out God's love into our hearts and bind the church more deeply into holy communion with the love of the Holy Trinity. How can we not reach out to others and draw them into that holy communion of love?

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners:

As we celebrate Trinity Sunday today I would like to share with you a part of the Homily that Pope Benedict XVI gave on this great feast. The Holy Father proclaimed: Today we are celebrating the Feast of the Blessed Trinity, the Feast of God, of the center of our faith: God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. When one thinks of the Trinity, one usually thinks of the aspect of the mystery: they are Three and they are One, one God in three Persons. Actually God in his greatness cannot be anything but a mystery for us, yet he revealed himself. We can know him in his Son and thus also know the Father and the Holy Spirit. Instead today's Liturgy draws our attention not so much to this mystery as to the reality of love that is contained in this first and supreme mystery of our faith. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are one because God is love and love is an absolute life-giving force; the unity created by love is a unity greater than a purely physical unity. The Father gives everything to the Son; the Son receives everything from the Father with gratitude; and the Holy Spirit is the fruit of this mutual love of the Father and the Son. The texts of today's Mass speak of God and thus speak of love; they do not dwell so much on the three Persons, but rather on love which is the substance and, at the same time, the unity and trinity... You are justly proud of and grateful for all that the Holy Spirit has done in your Church throughout the centuries. However, you also know that the best way to appreciate an inheritance is to cultivate and enrich it. You are called, in fact, to develop this precious deposit in one of the most crucial moments in history. Today your mission is facing profound and rapid cultural, social, economic and political transformations that have determined new directions and changed mentalities, customs and sensitivities. Here too, as elsewhere, there is no lack of difficulties and obstacles, due above all to hedonistic models that obscure minds and risk uprooting all morality. The temptation has crept in to believe that man's true wealth is not faith, but personal and social power, his intellect, his culture and his capacity to manipulate scientific, technological and social reality. Thus, in these lands too, people have begun to replace faith and Christian values with presumed riches which ultimately prove to be inconsistent and unable to sustain the great promise of the true, the good, the beautiful and the just that for centuries your ancestors have identified with the experience of faith.

Nor should we forget the crisis into which many families have been plunged, aggravated by the widespread psychological and spiritual fragility of couples, as well as the struggle experienced by many educators in offering formative continuity to young people, who are conditioned by various types of instability, and in the first place that of their social role and work opportunities.

Once again this year we will be celebrating a novena of masses in honor of Father's Day. If you would like to enroll your father, living or deceased, in these masses please fill out an intention envelope and return it either in the Sunday basket or directly to the parish office by Saturday, June 18th.

STEWARDSHIP

Mystery

A teacher was talking with his students about mystery. "Think of a rose," he said. Everyone in the room could imagine a rose. "Imagine its fragrance." All heads nodded. "Describe it." No one could. Our modern minds want "just the facts," but mystery is truth that cannot be pinned down. Today is the feast of the Holy Trinity: one God in three persons. In the history of the Church, many scholars have described the Trinity, but none can provide a final definition because the Trinity is beyond words. The scriptures show the actions of God as Father, Son, and Spirit and contain references to their relationship. Jesus tells his disciples there is one savior and one salvation, given to us in Jesus Christ himself, which is open to us through the Holy Spirit. Saint Paul says we are the Body of Christ and in relationship with God, equally called, chosen, and loved. Yet God gives us different gifts, abilities, and callings and asks only for our love in return and that we use what God has given us. It's that simple.

Retirement

Please join us as we recognize Deacon Ralph and Peggy Skiano for the dedication that they have displayed to the St. Mary Magdalene Parish family. We pray that they enjoy the greatest of God's blessings as they ride off into the sunset on a new journey with untrodden adventures. As you see Deacon Ralph and Peggy in passing in these next few weeks, please wish them well!
