

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 18, 2023

At the sight of the crowds, his heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest."

Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness. The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus; Simon the Cananean, and Judas Iscariot who betrayed him.

Jesus sent out these twelve after instructing them thus, "Do not go into pagan territory or enter a Samaritan town. Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give.

Three O'clock Prayer

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and an ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world.

O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the world and empty Yourself out upon us.

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You (3X)

Welcome!

No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church,
No matter what your current family or marital situation,
No matter what your past or present situation,
No matter what your personal history,
age, background or race,
No matter what your own self image or self-esteem.
You are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved,
and respected at St. Mary Magdalene Church!

We are so happy to have you here!

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

Grace is not a gift we can enjoy alone. A careful look reveals that all of today's scriptures refer to a group of people. In the reading from Exodus, God's words are directed to the whole Israelite people. The people will receive God's covenantal grace together, or not at all. The psalm proclaims that "We are God's people: the sheep of his flock" (Psalm 100:3c). Here again, the whole people together receive God's gracious kindness and faithfulness, not the psalmist alone. In the Gospel, Jesus pities the whole crowd, and he sends the Twelve together into service. The whole people are to participate in and benefit from God's healing grace.

Finally, we discover that the reading from Paul's Letter to the Romans is written entirely in the first person plural. He writes to the community about the grace that has reconciled and gathered them to live a new life together. It is we for whom Christ died, we who receive God's grace in order to become God's "kingdom of priests, a holy nation," the flock of the Lord. God's amazing grace grabs, gathers, and guides us under the grace-filled care of Jesus.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend as we celebrate Father's Day I would like to take this opportunity to share with you a brief passage from the Apostolic Exhortation Familiaris Consortio of Pope John Paul II in which he writes about the importance of the role of Fatherhood in the family. "Within the conjugal and family communion-community, the man is called upon to live his gift and role as husband and father. In his wife he sees the fulfillment of God's intention: 'It is not good that the man should be alone, I will make him a helper fit for him,' and he makes his own the cry of Adam, the first husband: 'This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh....' Love for his wife as mother of their children and love for the children themselves are for the man the natural way of understanding and fulfilling his own fatherhood. Above all where social and cultural conditions so easily encourage a father to be less concerned with his family or at any rate less involved in the work of education, efforts must be made to restore socially the conviction that the place and task of the father in and for the family is of unique and irreplaceable importance. As experience teaches, the absence of a father causes psychological and moral imbalance and notable difficulties in family relationships, as does, in contrary circumstances, the oppressive presence of a father, especially where there still prevails the phenomenon of 'machismo,' or a wrong superiority of male prerogatives which humiliates women and inhibits the development of healthy family relationships. In revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God, a man is called upon to ensure the harmonious and united development of all the members of the family: he will perform this task by exercising generous responsibility for the life conceived under the heart of the mother, by a more solicitous commitment to education, a task he shares with his wife, by work which is never a cause of division in the family but promotes its unity and stability, and by means of the witness he gives of an adult Christian life which effectively introduces the children into the living experience of Christ and the Church."

Next weekend our parish in union with Catholic parishes throughout the world will be participating in the annual Peter's Pence Collection. Contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection enable the Holy Father to respond with immediate emergency assistance to the most disadvantaged throughout the world — those who suffer as a result of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Your contribution will allow the Holy Father to respond with timely and effective emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters throughout the world. If you have not already done so I invite you to use the contribution envelope and return your donation by either dropping it in the collection basket next week or by mailing it directly to our parish office.

Finally, I am pleased to announce that after almost a year and a half of searching we have hired a new maintenance person for our parish. Mr. James Armijo comes to us after a successful navy career. James will be working Monday through Friday 7 am to 1pm. Please welcome him as you see him around the parish. Now that we have finally filled our Director of Religious Education, position as well as our maintenance position we are back up to our full complement of parish staff.

Please note that one of our parish projects this summer is to begin to "weed out" the "stuff" that has accumulated at the parish over the last many years. I anticipate this project will begin in July. Therefore, if your club or organization has supplies or other items in the church, rectory, parish hall, or convent building that are still being used I would ask your group to clearly identify them and separate them from any items that can be thrown out.

STEWARDSHIP

Not Ours But God's

"Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give," says Jesus in today's Gospel (Matthew 10:8). We often think people have absolute authority over their possessions. We believe our bank account is no one else's business and what we give is a private matter between us and God. The truth is that whatever we have ultimately comes from God's hands and we have temporary custody of it. If you find yourself insisting that some part of your spiritual life is nobody else's business, it may be a warning sign that you are trying to hide something. Jesus gave his life not to provide a private relationship with us, but to create a church of people consecrated to him. This church shares responsibility for spreading the gospel as well as the spiritual growth of its members. This means that we must be honest and accountable with God and with one another about how we handle God's money.

Living Stewardship Now

Money can buy a bed, but not sleep. Money can buy a wedding ring, but not love. Money can buy a clock, but not time. Money can buy an education, but not wisdom. Money can buy jewelry, but not beauty. Money can buy insurance, but not safety. Money can buy a crucifix, but not a Savior. Review the money you give to God. Is your giving generous or what you can spare?

Happy Father's Day

Prayer For Fathers

Heavenly Father,
Thank you for the gift of a father who has been an inspiration through his love and dedication. Just as you sent your Son to show the world your love for us as a father, we pray that you will send your Spirit upon Dad that he may be strengthened as he strives to guide and support his family. Amen.

Peter's Pence Collection Next Week

Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. Envelopes can be found on the counter at the entrance of the church. For more information, visit www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html.

Our Parish summer reading book is Saint Therese of Lisieux – The Story of a Soul".

This year, 2023, is the 150th anniversary of her birth, and a good time to read or re-read if it has been a while! Her book conveys her secrets of great holiness achieved in ordinary life. In 1997 St. Pope John Paul II declared St. Therese a doctor of the Church because of her writings and spirituality.

No sign up required. Read it over the summer and we will meet Saturday, September 30th at 9:30am for small group discussions. For more information contact: Mrs. Gerry Barlow at gerryb1126@sbcglobal.net.

Culture of Life

Our summer reading book is "Fighting for Life" by Lila Rose.

What makes your heart break for our broken world? In this book, Lila Rose, Founder of Live Action, shares raw and intimate stories from both her personal journey and pro-life activism that will inspire you to become a champion for your own cause.

No sign up required. Read it over the summer and we will discuss on September 9th at 9:30am at our 2nd Saturday of the month meeting. For more information contact life@stmarymagonline.org

2023 Summer Series at St. Brigid Church

Tuesdays in June from 7:00pm - 8:30pm in the Parish Hall

St. Brigid's Church thrilled to partner with the Franciscan School of Theology for their 2023 Summer School of Prayer. Talks are lined up in June and more to follow this August. Each session stands alone so you can pick topics of interest to attend or come to the whole series. No cost and no RSVP required.

June 20: Listening, Discerning, Going Forth: A Franciscan Approach to Accompanying Young Adults by Dr. Maureen Day, Ph.D

June 27: Franciscan Remedies for the Spirit in an Age of Tribulations by Dr. Joe Chinnici, OFM, Ph.D

What is School of Prayer?

The term comes from Saint Pope John Paul II's Apostolic Letter, Novo Millennio Ineunte which states, "Yes, dear brothers and sisters, our Christian communities must become genuine "schools" of prayer, where the meeting with Christ is expressed not just in imploring help but also in thanksgiving, praise, adoration, contemplation, listening and ardent devotion, until the heart truly "falls in love". Intense prayer, yes, but it does not distract us from our commitment to history: by opening our heart to the love of God it also opens it to the love of our brothers and sisters, and makes us capable of shaping history according to God's plan." At St. B's School of Prayer, we want to help you:

- Truly fall in love with Jesus
- Open your heart to God's beloved (everyone)
- Be empowered and emboldened to shape history with us, according to God's plan

Together we can set the world on fire!
