

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

JUNE 19, 2022

Anima Christi

*Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Permit me not to be separated from you.
From the wicked foe, defend me.
At the hour of my death, call me and bid me
come to you
That with your saints I may praise you
For ever and ever. Amen.*

Three O'clock Prayer

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and an ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the world and empty Yourself out upon us.

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You (3X)

Jesus, I trust In You (3X)

St. Mary Magdalene Mission Statement

We, the Eucharistic Community of St. Mary Magdalene, are called to conversion in Jesus Christ.

Our community life and worship are based on the Bible, the Sacraments, and the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Living the love of Christ impacts our moral, intellectual, and religious life, and makes us a caring community that brings hope to our families, neighborhood, and society.

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

I came across a little book not too long ago that offered a selection of "B and Bs" ("Bed and Breakfast" residences) where travelers could stay in a certain state. The promise of a good "B and B" is a clean place, a good night's sleep, and a good meal to begin the day. In short, rest and sustenance.

Is it too irreverent to propose that today's feast is a reminder that we believers have available the "B and B" of all "B and Bs" in the Eucharist? This sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ offers an ongoing opportunity for rest and sustenance with the Lord.

Today's scriptures all deal with offering sustenance, beginning with Melchizedek presenting Abraham a little bread and wine along with a blessing. Then there is Paul reminding the fractious Corinthians how eating the bread and wine sustains them as they proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. Finally, Jesus provides rest and sustenance for his disciples, along with five thousand others who show up.

My late stepfather worked off a truck, checking gas meters and doing repairs for the Baltimore Gas and Electric Company. He used to stop in a church and have his lunch there. He said it provided him a chance to talk to the Lord and rest for a few moments in the Lord's presence. It sustained him over the years. Again, rest and sustenance.

God's ongoing hospitality in the Eucharist has continued over generations to offer rest and sustenance. What could be better than having the Lord coming to dwell within us, giving us the nourishment necessary to sustain us on our journey?

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners:

Please plan on joining us next Sunday, June 26th, following our 9:00am and 11:00am Sunday Masses for a "Thank you" reception for Deacon Ralph and Peggy Skiano who are finishing up their assigned ministry here in the parish and looking forward to full retirement. Come and express your gratitude for their service in our parish.

This weekend as we celebrate Father's Day, I would like to take this opportunity to share with you a brief passage from the Apostolic Exhortation Familiaris Consortio of Pope John Paul II in which he writes about the importance of the role of Fatherhood in the family. "Within the conjugal and family communion-community, the man is called upon to live his gift and role as husband and father. In his wife he sees the fulfillment of God's intention: 'It is not good that the man should be alone, I will make him a helper fit for him,' and he makes his own the cry of Adam, the first husband: 'This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh...' Love for his wife as mother of their children and love for the children themselves are for the man the natural way of understanding and fulfilling his own fatherhood. Above all where social and cultural conditions so easily encourage a father to be less concerned with his family or at any rate less involved in the work of education, efforts must be made to restore socially the conviction that the place and task of the father in and for the family is of unique and irreplaceable importance. As experience teaches, the absence of a father causes psychological and moral imbalance and notable difficulties in family relationships, as does, in contrary circumstances, the oppressive presence of a father, especially where there still prevails the phenomenon of 'machismo,' or a wrong superiority of male prerogatives which humiliates women and inhibits the development of healthy family relationships. In revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God, a man is called upon to ensure the harmonious and united development of all the members of the family: he will perform this task by exercising generous responsibility for the life conceived under the heart of the mother, by a more solicitous commitment to education, a task he shares with his wife, by work which is never a cause of division in the family but promotes its unity and stability, and by means of the witness he gives of an adult Christian life which effectively introduces the children into the living experience of Christ and the Church."

Next weekend our parish, in union with Catholic parishes throughout the world, will be participating in the annual Peter's Pence Collection. Contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection enable the Holy Father to respond with immediate emergency assistance to the most disadvantaged throughout the world — those who suffer as a result of war, oppression, and natural disasters.

Your contribution will allow the Holy Father to respond with timely and effective emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters throughout the world. If you have not already done so, I invite you to use the contribution envelope that can be found in the pews next weekend and return your donation by either dropping it in the collection basket next week or by mailing it directly to our parish office.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge Mrs. Tess Nelson our parish music director who this past week (June 15th) participated as a part of the 50 member choral which backed up Andrea Bocelli, the opera tenor, who performed here in San Diego.

Fr. Ed McNulty
Pastor

Peter's Pence

Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. For more information visit www.obolodisanietro.va/en.html. Be a sign of Mercy.

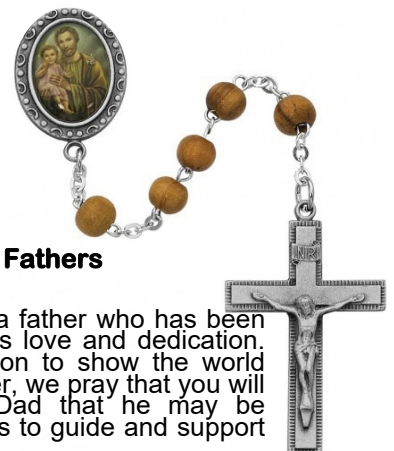

DAD

*A son's first Hero.
A daughter's first Love.*

Remember Dad

Father's Day novena cards are available on the counter in the vestibule of the church. Register your father, grandfather, brother, or uncle for this special observance of Father's Day. Our novena begins June 21st.

*Happy
Father's Day*

Prayer For Fathers

Heavenly Father,
Thank you for the gift of a father who has been an inspiration through his love and dedication. Just as you sent your Son to show the world your love for us as a father, we pray that you will send your Spirit upon Dad that he may be strengthened as he strives to guide and support

Retirement

Please join us as we recognize Deacon Ralph and Peggy Skiano for the dedication that they have displayed to the St. Mary Magdalene Parish family. We pray that they enjoy the greatest of God's blessings as they ride off into the sunset on a new journey with untrodden adventures. As you see Deacon Ralph and Peggy in passing in these next few weeks, please wish them well!

A small reception will take place after the 9am and 11am Masses next Sunday, June 26th, in the back patio.

Reporting Allegations of Sexual Misconduct

The Diocese of San Diego treats all allegations of sexual misconduct by clergy or Church personnel seriously and deals with them in a prompt, confidential, and thorough manner. Contact the Victim Assistance Coordinator, Mary Acosta, (858) 490-8353 or misconduct@sdcatholic.org to report sexual misconduct including abuse or visit www.safeinourdiocese.org.

Remember to Support Our Advertisers!

The JS Paluch Company arranges for the bulletin to be supported through the generosity of the businesses that you see advertised on the back cover. Most of these advertisers are members of our local community, and many belong to our parish.

Prayer for the Deployed Military

As a faith community let's pray for all those who serve our country during these troubled times.

We pray especially for those of our parish who are deployed or will soon be deployed. We also thank God for those who have returned safely.

Let us pray:

Almighty God, be their constant companion and strength in every adversity. May they always experience your presence, love and comfort.

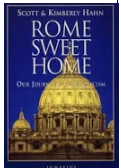

Summer Beach Reads at St Mary Magdalene

Adult Education - Back to Basics

Rome Sweet Home by Scott & Kimberly Hahn

Meet up in September (date to be finalized) to discuss the book in small groups, we hope you will join us.

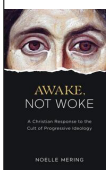

Scott & Kimberly Hahn, tell us about the incredible spiritual journey that led them to convert to Catholicism. Their conversion story and love for the Church has captured the hearts and minds of thousands of lukewarm Catholics and brought them back into an active participation in the Church. They have also influenced countless non-Catholic conversions to Catholicism.
