

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

TWENTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 21, 2022

The Narrow Door

He went on his way through towns and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem. And someone said to him, "Lord, will those who are saved be few?" And he said to them, "Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. When once the master of the house has risen and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, open to us,' then he will answer you, 'I do not know where you come from.' Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' But he will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of evil!' In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God but you yourselves cast out. And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and recline at table in the kingdom of God. And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

TWENTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

Trudy hung up the phone very slowly. "Well, Jim, there's good news and bad news. The good news is that your mom and dad are coming to Kate's wedding after all. The bad news is that your brother is coming with them." Jim's brother was a missionary for a strict religious sect. When he had learned that Jim and Trudy were becoming Catholic he had erupted in condemnation. They had not spoken since then.

Have you ever hoped someone would not come to an event you were hosting, or scheduled it when you knew the person wouldn't be available? Are there people whose presence in the seat next to you at Sunday Mass would make you uncomfortable? Today's scriptures proclaim that those people have as much right to "recline at table in the kingdom of God" as we do - or more. They suggest that if we want the Lord to "open the door for us," we must be willing to open the door to everyone.

Living God's Word

Many of us wish that certain people were outside the reach of God's love. Surrendering that illusion can be "a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness" (Hebrews 12:11). Perhaps by giving up our self-righteousness our words and actions will tell the Good News of God's all-inclusive love.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners:

It is that time of year again when schools are starting back up and education is at the forefront of our minds. This is true not only with the regular academic schedule but also with our religious education program. If you have a child in need of ongoing formation in the faith, I would encourage you see our parish website to register online or to contact our Religious Education office as soon as possible so that our staff can assist you.

Believe it or not our school resumes next week. Beginning last Wednesday, we welcomed our teachers and staff back and then this week almost 530 students will begin the 2022-23 school year. I am so grateful that we are able to begin this year with all of our teachers, staff, and students on campus. Again, I am grateful for all those who have worked this summer to prepare our school grounds and classrooms for this new academic year. Over the summer this year, in addition to regular maintenance and repair, our teachers in Kindergarten and Preschool have a renovated work space, we have a new door in one of the classrooms to facilitate movement of students, and a significant portion of the plumbing in the "convent" building has been replaced or repaired to reduce chronic plumbing problems. Please pray for our students as well as all those going back to school in these next few weeks. May God grant them wisdom and peace as they continue their studies. Please also be aware of the extra little pedestrians and increased traffic during school hours particularly during mornings and afternoons.

A few years ago, the Vatican published a document on the Role of Parish Community. I would like to share some parts of this document for our reflection. The authors write: since its inception, the Parish is envisioned as a response to a precise pastoral need, namely that of bringing the Gospel to the People through the proclamation of the faith and the celebration of the Sacraments. The etymology of the word makes clear the meaning of the institution: the Parish is a house among houses and is a response to the logic of the Incarnation of Jesus Christ, alive and active among the community. It is visibly characterized then, as a place of worship, a sign of the permanent presence of the Risen Lord in the midst of his People. The territorial configuration of the Parish, however, must confront a peculiar characteristic of our contemporary world, whereby increased mobility and the digital culture have expanded the confines of existence. On the one hand, people are less associated today with a definite and immutable geographical context, living instead in "a global and pluralist village"; on the other hand, the digital culture has inevitably altered the concept of space, together with people's language and behavior, especially in younger generations.

Moreover, it is quite easy to hypothesize about how the continuous development of technology will ultimately change our way of thinking, together with the understanding of self and of social living. The speed of change, successive cultural models, the ease of movement and the speed of communication are transforming the perception of space and time. As a living community of believers, the Parish finds itself in a context whereby the territorial affiliation is increasingly less evident, where places of association are multiplied and where interpersonal relationships risk being dissolved into a virtual world without any commitment or responsibility towards one's neighbor. It is noteworthy how such cultural changes and the evolving territorial ties are fostering within the Church, through the grace of the Holy Spirit, a new discernment around community, "which consists in seeing reality with the eyes of God, with a view to unity and communion". The whole People of God must urgently embrace the Holy Spirit's invitation to begin the process of "renewing" the face of the earth.

For those who have read the book, wonderful! If you have not, there is still time. We will be meeting on September 17th to discuss the book. We hope you will join us.

Scott & Kimberly Hahn, tell us about the incredible spiritual journey that led them to convert to Catholicism. Their conversion story and love for the Church has captured the hearts and minds of thousands of lukewarm Catholics and brought them back into an active participation in the Church. They have also influenced countless non-Catholic conversions to Catholicism.

Family Life Education Curriculum Fair

As Catholic parents, ministers, catechists, and educators, we are entrusted with the task of helping our children and youth develop a healthy and holy understanding of their bodies and of God's gift of human sexuality. Too often, we lack the necessary resources or we feel inadequate to the task of witnessing the beauty of Church teaching on marriage and family.

In the spirit of empowering our parishes, schools, and families to form their children in the good news of family life, the Offices for Family Life & Spirituality and Evangelization & Catechetical Ministry will be co-hosting a Family Life Education Curriculum Fair.

Date: Thursday, September 22

Time: 9:30am - 2:30pm

Where: Our Mother of Confidence Parish - 3131 Governor Dr. 92122

We are excited to have so many great publishers on hand, including Ascension Press, Theology of the Body Evangelization Team, Love Ed, Teen STAR, Ruah Woods, and more.

Parents, Catechists, DCMs, Youth Ministers, School Admins, and Parishioners are highly encouraged to attend. The event is free and lunch is included. Please register at sdcatholicdisciples.net.
