TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 15, 2023

The Parable Of The Wedding Feast

Jesus again in reply spoke to them in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast."' Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.' The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to meet the guests he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. He said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?' But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, 'Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.' Many are invited, but few are chosen."

TWENTY- EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

As Catholics we are invited to “come to the feast” at significant moments in our lives. Baptisms, First Communions, marriages, ordinations, and funeral rites are all commonly celebrated within the feast of the Eucharist. The clothes we wear—from the baptismal garment to the funeral pall, from fancy wedding garb to simple white albs—reflect our baptismal commitment to be faithful to Christ until we come to the eternal heavenly feast that our Eucharistic celebrations anticipate. All are invited to come to the feast. All are invited to dress in the garment of Christ. Not all respond to the invitation.

It has often been asked what would happen if, some Sunday morning, praying as we always do for Christ to come again, Christ actually did return. Would we come to his feast? Would we prefer our small private gathering to the huge mass of people we don't really want to know? Would we be found wearing the garment of faithfulness we were given in baptism? Where would we be “on that day”?

Living God's Word

Over the past few weeks the scriptures have provided us with a feast of images of God's abundant mercy. Today's image of the heavenly banquet both completes the picture of God's generosity and shifts our attention to our response to God's generous invitation.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Our parish youth programs are hosting a parish Fall Festival on the afternoon of Sunday, October 29th from 2:00pm-5:00pm. It will include face painting, pumpkin carving, crafts, music and much more. I hope you will join us for this community building event.

The month of November is fast approaching and once again, this year we would like to remember all of our beloved deceased. If you would like to have a picture of your loved one displayed in the church, there is a box in the entrance of the church to receive photos. Also, in the next few weeks envelopes will be available for those who may wish to enroll a departed loved one in our All Souls Novena of Masses. You may drop your envelope in the basket on Sunday or return them directly to our parish office by Monday, October 30th.

In response to the continued tensions and violence that erupted into warfare between Gaza and Israel on October 7th, Bishop David J. Malloy of Rockford, chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Committee on International Justice and Peace, calls for prayers for peace in the Holy Land: "On October 7th, the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary, the world watched the operation launched from Gaza and the rapid call to arms from Israel that ensued. Almost 50 years to the day of the launch of the 1973 Arab-Israeli War, once again war is spilling out in the Holy Land. With it brings the mounting casualties and hostilities unfolding on all sides, and increased threats to the Status Quo of the Holy Places among Jews, Muslims, and Christians further dimming any hope for peace. "The world is once again shocked and horrified by the outbreak of ferocious violence in the Holy Land. Reports have surfaced indicating large numbers of wounded and dead, including many civilians. "I join with Pope Francis in his call for peace and his condemnation of this widespread outbreak of violence. As he stated in his Sunday audience, 'May the attacks and weaponry cease. Please! And let it be understood that terrorism and war do not lead to any resolutions, but only to the death and suffering of so many innocent people.' "May all who love the Holy Land seek to bring about among all the parties engaged in the fighting a cessation of violence, respect for civilian populations and the release of hostages. "As we pray urgently for peace, we recall especially all the families and individuals suffering from these events. We call on the faithful, and all people of good will to not grow weary and to continue to pray for peace in the land Our Lord, the Prince of Peace, called home."

In the next few weeks, as we approach the national elections in November, we will be experiencing an ever increasing amount of information on politicians and political issues. Therefore, with this in mind, I wish to continue to share with you brief passages from Faithful Citizenship Civic Responsibility for a New Millennium a Statement on Political Responsibility by the Administrative Board of the U.S. Catholic Bishops. The Bishops wrote: "Building peace, combating poverty and despair, and protecting freedom and human rights are not only moral imperatives; they are wise national priorities. Given its enormous power and influence in world affairs, the United States has a special responsibility to ensure that it is a force for justice and peace beyond our borders. 'Liberty and justice for all' is not only a profound national pledge; it is a worthy goal for our nation in its role as world leader."

STEWARDSHIP

Dress The Part

The Gospel today has some surprising twists. A king is hosting his son's wedding feast. Guests are invited, surely a great honor. But some invitees are too busy and refuse. Others get angry and attack the messengers. The king punishes those who murdered his servants and opens up the banquet to anyone. The hall fills up with a motley crew of guests. The king spots one man who is not dressed for the occasion and cannot explain why, so he is thrown out. Yet wasn't the man pulled in off the street? Yes, but the king had a wedding garment for each guest, and this man did not bother to pick one up, thereby insulting his host. We are all invited to the table of the Lord. Our outer wedding garment is to dress with care and respect. Our inner garment is to "put on Christ," clothing ourselves in his love and goodness in order to be worthy of the Kingdom.

Your fervent prayers and upcoming generosity in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, will bolster the missionaries working in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands and certain regions of Latin America and Europe.
