

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER 19, 2023

It will be as when a man who was going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one - to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money. After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. (Matthew 25: 14 - 19, 29)

Living God's Word

In his first letter to the Thessalonian community Saint Paul says that "the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night" (1 Thessalonians 5:2). If, however, we pick it up and run with it at that point, perhaps something new can be born in us.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

Some things drop into our lives and we simply run with them. Summer vacation was like that when I was a child. There was no need and certainly no desire to organize it for the sake of efficiency. Summer was better when it just happened: bike riding and pick-up softball on the school playground behind our house and swimming at Lakeside Park and going for ice cream at dusk and catching fireflies at night and a thousand other things that come together and make up summer.

There are other things, however, that drop into our lives but never go anywhere, except perhaps with a lot of prodding. School comes to mind. I never would have gone had I been given a menu of options. Having my tonsils out was another such thing, and wearing braces on my teeth, and moving into a new city when I was eight, and my grandmother dying on my twelfth birthday. I took them in stride, mostly because there was no other way to take them. Given my druthers, though, they never would have happened at all. I simply lived with them, and then they were over.

The Gospel this week proposes that God comes in much the same way. God gives us five talents' worth of life or two talents' worth or even one talent's worth, and with it enough energy to double it. Sometimes, though, God drops in when we'd rather be left alone, and so we try to bury God just because the situation doesn't look very life-giving to us. Yet it can be life-giving, like the weary routine of raising children or going to the same job we've been going to for the past twenty-five years or taking care of an aging parent. Eventually we may find out that burying such life is more deadly than the risk of living it, and living it brings a higher yield than we could ever expect.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Believe it or not the holidays are upon us. This week, as we celebrate Thanksgiving, I invite you to start your day by joining us for mass. Our parish will celebrate on Thanksgiving morning with Mass at 9:00am. Please feel free to bring a food or drink item to be blessed at this Mass and shared at your Thanksgiving table.

This weekend we will be participating in the Collection for National Needs. This annual collection supports the following programs and ministries: Black and Indian Missions, Campaign for Human Development, Catholic Communications Campaign, Catholic Home Missions and The Catholic University of America. Your support for and generosity toward these important national needs is greatly appreciated. Envelopes can be found in the entrance of the church.

At our 9:00am Sunday Mass this weekend we welcome the members of our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) program who are taking their first steps toward being fully initiated in our Catholic Church. This Rite is called the Rite of Acceptance and is intended to indicate that our parish "accepts" and vows to support these members as they continue their journey in the faith.

In this year in which our world has experienced the tremendous power of nature and witnessed the tragedy of human suffering, I offer for your reflection the words of President Franklin Roosevelt in his Thanksgiving Day Proclamation of 1934 as our nation continued to work to overcome the effects of the great depression.

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November, 1934, as a Day of Thanksgiving for the people of the Nation. Thus to set aside in the autumn of each year a day on which to give thanks to Almighty God for the blessings of life is a wise and reverent custom, long cherished by our people. It is fitting that we should again observe this custom.

During the past year we have been given courage and fortitude to meet the problems which have confronted us in our national life. Our sense of social justice has deepened. We have been given vision to make new provisions for human welfare and happiness, and in a spirit of mutual helpfulness we have cooperated to translate vision into reality.

More greatly have we turned our hearts and minds to things spiritual. We can truly say, "What profiteth it a nation if it gain the whole world and lose its own soul."

With gratitude in our hearts for what has already been achieved, may we, with the help of God, dedicate ourselves anew to work for the betterment of mankind. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington this 15th day of November, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fifty-ninth.

STEWARDSHIP

Use It or Lose It

The parable in today's Gospel is about talents. Talents in Jesus' time were heavy silver weights, each worth a large amount of money. Today we define talents as our God-given abilities. By either definition, talents are there for a purpose - to be used. As Jesus' story shows, money has no value if it is simply buried. How many of us acquire possessions, squirreling them away like pack rats? How much of what we own never gets used or is "only for special occasions"? Our abilities are just as useless if we never put them to work. Talents. Do you know what yours are? Our talents are not the skills or knowledge we have acquired, or our experience of life. Talents, rather, are those special aptitudes that are unique to each person. Some of us know what those talents are and use them to the fullest; some know some of theirs and use them now and again. Many more have little understanding of what real strengths God has endowed them with, or how to use them for good. Unfortunately, the stories of many of the saints have not helped us. We may feel we have to have extraordinary gifts like them to be of any use. Not long ago a scientist set up an experiment. She matched people recently diagnosed with multiple sclerosis with people who had had the same illness longer. She expected to see that each of the newly-diagnosed would show an improved outlook from the help of their new "buddy," and this proved true. But surprisingly, the outlook of the helpers improved even more dramatically. Just the listening and befriending made all the difference. So think carefully about what your true abilities and aptitudes are and put them to use, whether for welcoming, spreading joy, making peace, healing, or comforting.

A PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Lord God, on this day of Thanksgiving,
We ask your blessings on our family,
our friends, our home, our health—and
on the food we are about to eat.

We thank you for this time together and the many gifts that you have given us.

Help us to remember in this time of bounty those less fortunate. And may your love consume us all that we might share in your glory.

Amen.
