

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

DECEMBER 17, 2023

A man named John was sent from God. He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to testify to the light.

And this is the testimony of John. When the Jews from Jerusalem sent priests and Levites [to him] to ask him, "Who are you?" he admitted and did not deny it, but admitted, "I am not the Messiah." So they asked him, "What are you then? Are you Elijah?" And he said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" He answered, "No." So they said to him, "Who are you, so we can give an answer to those who sent us? What do you have to say for yourself?" He said:

"I am 'the voice of one crying out in the desert, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,'" as Isaiah the prophet said." Some Pharisees were also sent. They asked him, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Messiah or Elijah or the Prophet?" John answered them, "I baptize with water; but there is one among you whom you do not recognize, the one who is coming after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie." This happened in Bethany across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Joy

The third candle is pink and symbolizes joy. It is called the Shepherds Candle, and is pink because rose is a liturgical color for joy. The third Sunday of Advent is Gaudete Sunday and is meant to remind us of the joy that the world experienced at the birth of Jesus, as well as the joy that the faithful have reached the midpoint of Advent.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

Certain watchwords are associated with each season of the church year, almost becoming a motto. Advent's is "Wake up." It then leads to other words like "Watch," "Wait," and "Witness." But every Third Sunday of Advent, we anticipate the coming Christmas season, whose key word is "Rejoice." This Sunday was traditionally called Gaudete ("Rejoice") Sunday. Priests continue to wear rose-colored vestments today, signaling joy.

Joy is not only for Christmastime and the occasional Sunday. I remember as an altar boy, before Vatican II, Mass began with the "prayers at the foot of the altar." The priest would begin: "I will go up to the altar of God." The server responded: "To God who gives joy to my youth," or as some translations had it, "To God, my exceeding joy."

It was a reminder that God is the source of all joy and that joy is one of the great gifts of God, one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. St. Paul reminds us that "the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Gal 5:22-23). Now there is a good list for Christmas giving. Tell your loved ones your Christmas gift this year will be to pray throughout the coming year that the Spirit will bring them one of these gifts.

John's gift to the people who came out into the wilderness was to call them to prepare for the Lord, to give them a sense of heightened anticipation that the One coming to them would fill them with joy.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Today is Gaudete Sunday! Gaudete is the Latin word meaning "Rejoice!" The first two readings are filled with images of joy and comfort. They reassure us that God is near and always desires good things for us. Lasting joy comes not from status, possessions, and power, but from a life lived in the peace of God. As we get closer to Christmas, the pressure increases to buy more, spend more, eat more, do more. It requires great discipline to say "Enough!"

The holiday season is a time when, in the exchange of gifts, we demonstrate our love for those who have touched us in special ways in our lives. Therefore, it is fitting that this weekend has been designated for the national collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious. This appeal helps to ensure appropriate care and handicapped accessible housing for more than 37,000 Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests who are now past age 70. The crisis in unfunded retirement became evident in the early 1970s. Catholic schools, operated primarily by religious orders, were educating more than 10 percent of the student population in the United States. Catholic hospitals were becoming the largest group of not-for-profit hospitals in the nation. But the salaries and stipends to religious were earmarked primarily for good works, new ministries, and training and education that prepared religious for ministries. For generations, the care of elderly members had been carried out by those entering religious life. Today, however, elderly religious far outnumber wage-earning religious. Retired religious today receive on average one-third of the benefit paid to the average Social Security recipient. Most church and diocesan pension plans do not cover religious institutes, which are organized independently. Health care costs have skyrocketed and the number of elderly religious in assisted living or nursing facilities has risen dramatically. I invite you to be as generous as possible in giving back to those who have given their lives in service of the gospel.

Envelopes for your gift can be found in the entrance to the church.

Fr. Ed McNulty,
Pastor

STEWARDSHIP

A Simpler Christmas

Forget the "ideal" Christmas complete with snow, carols, angelically-behaved children, and the perfect presents, food, and decorations. Put the emphasis on Jesus.

If there is a Christmas chore or activity that you hate, either stop doing it or stop complaining. If you still do it and you still complain, don't expect sympathy!

If you dread writing and mailing Christmas cards, don't bother. If you want to greet people in a simpler way, use Internet sites such as catholicgreetings.org and send e-cards with a few clicks of your mouse.

If you are hosting a Christmas dinner for family and friends, don't do everything yourself. Tell the people living with you they can all pitch in—assign tasks if necessary—and ask guests to bring their favorite dish.

Don't spend what you don't have. Set a dollar limit and stick to it.

Consider a family gift exchange, or donate to a favorite charity in honor of friends and family. Place gifts under a parish or community giving tree. Give coupons representing your gifts of time and talent to those you love. Buy gifts that are faith-related from your parish bookstore.

Create your own traditions: make a Christmas nativity scene; light Christmas candles; go with the family to Midnight Mass; read the Christmas stories out loud (in Matthew 1 and 2 and Luke 1 and 2); help serve dinner in a shelter.

Don't expect too much from others. Don't expect them to be in a certain mood or to behave in certain ways, or to give you the right gifts.

Don't do anything to excess: gift-giving, partying, drinking, eating.

Don't fight with family, particularly over who does or does not go to church; don't bring up old grudges.
