

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

December 25, 2022

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

It's Christmas. And once again we choose to rejoice. Like the rejected couple and the poor shepherds in the Gospel reading, like the besieged and frightened Israelites, we choose to sing Christmas carols and glorify God for the birth of the Savior, the light in our darkness. How can we rejoice in the face of all the trouble that surrounds us? And yet, how can we not rejoice when we remember all that God has done in Jesus?

Jesus showed us the depth of God's passionate zeal for us. God's powerful passion for us brought the Lord of Hosts to share our trials as the poorest of the poor and to save us from our suffering by his suffering. We choose joyful hope because we believe that what God has done once, God is doing now and will do again. God is with us to save us here and now, no matter how troubled the world may be, in Jesus Christ. Confident in God's passionate zeal for all creation, we join "heaven and nature" in rejoicing over the "wonders of his love."

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

During these holy days, as we celebrate the birth of Jesus, the gift of God to mankind, I would like to take this opportunity, on behalf of the staff of St. Mary Magdalene, to wish you a very Merry Christmas. I also wish to thank all of you who throughout the year gift our parish with your time in various ministries, your talent in music and art and your treasure in support of our parish. I pray that Christ may come to you this holiday season with the gift of Love, the blessing of Hope, and the promise of Peace.

Each year on Christmas day after celebrating Mass the Holy Father steps out onto the balcony over looking St. Peters Square and delivers a reflection called the "Urbi et Orbi" literally meaning to the "City and to the World". I would like to share with you a brief passage from Pope Benedict's reflection a few years ago. The Holy Father said: At Christmas, the Almighty becomes a child and asks for our help and protection. His way of showing that he is God challenges our way of being human. By knocking at our door, he challenges us and our freedom; he calls us to examine how we understand and live our lives. The modern age is often seen as an awakening of reason from its slumbers, humanity's enlightenment after an age of darkness. Yet without the light of Christ, the light of reason is not sufficient to enlighten humanity and the world. For this reason, the words of the Christmas Gospel: "the true Light that enlightens every man was coming into this world" (Jn 1:9) resound now more than ever as a proclamation of salvation. "It is only in the mystery of the Word made flesh that the mystery of humanity truly becomes clear" (Gaudium et Spes, 22). The Church does not tire of repeating this message of hope reaffirmed by the Second Vatican Council, which concluded forty years ago. Men and women of today, humanity come of age yet often still so frail in mind and will, let the Child of Bethlehem take you by the hand! Do not fear; put your trust in him! The life-giving power of his light is an incentive for building a new world order based on just ethical and economic relationships. May his love guide every people on earth and strengthen their common consciousness of being a "family" called to foster relationships of trust and mutual support. A united humanity will be able to confront the many troubling problems of the present time: from the menace of terrorism to the humiliating poverty in which millions of human beings live, from the proliferation of weapons to the pandemics and the environmental destruction which threatens the future of our planet...At Christmas we contemplate God made man, divine glory hidden beneath the poverty of a Child wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid in a manger; the Creator of the Universe reduced to the helplessness of an infant. Once we accept this paradox, we discover the Truth that sets us free and the Love that transforms our lives. On Bethlehem Night, the Redeemer becomes one of us, our companion along the precarious paths of history.

Let us take the hand which he stretches out to us: it is a hand which seeks to take nothing from us, but only to give. With the shepherds let us enter the stable of Bethlehem beneath the loving gaze of Mary, the silent witness of his miraculous birth. May she help us to experience the happiness of Christmas, may she teach us how to treasure in our hearts the mystery of God who for our sake became man; and may she help us to bear witness in our world to his truth, his love and his peace.

STEWARDSHIP

The Envelope, Please

It's just a plain envelope on our Christmas tree every year. My husband used to hate the way the birth of our Savior is swamped with consumerism. One year, our son's karate team was competing with kids from a poorer section of town. My husband commented on the visitors' hand-me-down, poorly-fitting uniforms. I wondered about the morale of these kids if they had proper outfits, so I bought some and sent them anonymously to their coach. I placed an envelope on the tree telling my husband that the uniforms were my gift to him. He was thrilled, and that began a new family tradition—one year I sent teens with disabilities to visit the aquarium; food and household items went another year to a family whose home had burned down. Our children loved learning what was in Dad's envelope. Sadly, my husband died last year. Yet I cried with happiness on Christmas morning to find four white envelopes from my children. My grandchildren crowded round excitedly, saying, "Open the envelopes, Gran!"
