

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 16, 2023

Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe."

Eight days later, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed." (John 20: 24-29)

St. Mary Magdalene Mission Statement

We, the Eucharistic Community of St. Mary Magdalene, are called to conversion in Jesus Christ.

Our community life and worship are based on the Bible, the Sacraments, and the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Living the love of Christ impacts our moral, intellectual, and religious life, and makes us a caring community that brings hope to our families, neighborhood, and society.

Three O'clock Prayer

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and an ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the world and empty Yourself out upon us.

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You (3X)

Jesus, I trust In You (3X)

Divine Mercy Sunday

As the faithful prepare to celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, it is important to review the meaning and historical significance of the day. On the Second Sunday of Easter of the Jubilee Year 2000, at the Mass for the Canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska, Pope John Paul II declared the Sunday after Easter be called "Divine Mercy Sunday."

St. Faustina was a Polish nun who received visions from Jesus, including one of Jesus wearing a white garment with beams of red and white coming from His heart, which came to be known as the image of Divine Mercy. She wrote in her diary that He said:

According to the vision, those who receive communion and attend confession on the Feast of Mercy receive total forgiveness of sins.

Divine Mercy Sunday focuses on the gift of mercy and love given through Christ's death, burial, and resurrection. As Pope John Paul II stated, "Divine Mercy reaches human beings through the heart of Christ crucified."

Living God's Word

It's been said that it takes a village to raise a child. I'd rather say it takes a community of faith to raise a believer. It's how we come to faith and stay in faith.

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

Once in a while I find myself in the pew at a liturgical celebration, and I confess I like to sit near the front and watch all the people as they come back from receiving Holy Communion. I know what all the books say about that, what my teachers taught, and what the priests I've listened to have preached. They said you're supposed to be praying, but I can't help it. I just like to watch all the folks. I think God may even like it as much as I do.

When I sit there watching them, I think about how we're all believers of one sort or another. George, who every week comes alone, without his family. And Melissa, who flirts with all the boys more than she should, and whose parents hardly ever seem to smile. And Mr. P., who always casts his eyes downward and folds his hands upward. And Agnes, who seems to have been caring for her aging mother for as long as anyone in the church can remember and who herself is now beginning to show signs of aging as well. And the lanky high schooler who must play basketball well, because he's certainly tall enough and wears a letter proudly on his school jacket. And Arthur, whose wife just died. And a couple hundred other believers as well. They're all here, every Sunday, and they're all part of the Body of Christ. It's also why I'm a believer, because they're believers; and most of the time I need them to be believers just so I can be a believer.

Thomas of this week's Gospel couldn't be a believer on his own. Having missed the Sunday gathering, he just couldn't say yes on his own. But one week later when he was there with all the others, that made all the difference in the world. In fact it made him a believer. So that's why I watch all the folks processing by after they receive Holy Communion. They make me a believer.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Our Holy Week and Easter celebrations would not have been possible without the hard work and dedication of so many in our parish. Therefore, I would once again like to thank in particular the members for their beautiful music, all who decorated our church so beautifully, and all those who helped behind the scenes to make our liturgies run smoothly.

This weekend, the Second Sunday of Easter, is observed throughout the Church as Divine Mercy Sunday. To encourage its celebration with special devotion, this Sunday has been enriched by a plenary indulgence which is granted to the faithful under the usual conditions:

- 1) Sacramental confession (satisfied this year by General Absolution which has already been granted)
- 2) Eucharistic communion
- 3) Prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father.

The other conditions for the plenary indulgence will be included within all celebrations of the Eucharist in our parish on Divine Mercy Sunday.

Parish life is filled with transition. In case you have not already been made aware Mrs. Jean Coleman who has been a part of our school community for over twenty years, serving almost the last decade as the principal, has announced that she will be retiring at the end of this school year. We are grateful for her many years of ministry to our school and parish communities. Following an extensive search, a search committee comprising of both faculty and parents has selected Mrs. Dana Davalos as the next principal at School of the Madeleine. Dana has been serving as the vice principal for the last several years and we happy to welcome her to this new role in our community.

Secondly, I wish to thank Gerry Barlow who has been serving as our Director of Religious Education. Gerry graciously stepped in two years ago when our parish was in need and has done a wonderful job. Gerry will be stepping down from this position at the end of this academic year. I am grateful for her ministry in our parish and in particular for her work with our young people. We will be looking for someone to take over this ministry. If you know of a qualified candidate please have them review the job posting on the HR page of the Diocesan web site and then submit their resume to the parish office.

On Easter Morning Pope Francis spoke "To the City and to the World" when he proclaimed: Christòs anesti! "Christ is risen; he is truly risen!" In this traditional proclamation of the Churches of the East, the word "truly" reminds us that our hope is not an illusion, but the truth! And that, in the wake of Easter, humanity's journey, now marked by hope, advances all the more readily. The first witnesses of the resurrection show this by their example.

The Gospels speak of the haste with which, on the morning of Easter, the women "ran to tell the disciples" (Mt 28:8). Mary Magdalene "ran and went to Simon Peter" (Jn 20:2), while John and Peter himself then "ran together" (cf. v. 4) to the place where Jesus had been buried. Later, on the evening of Easter, after meeting the Risen Lord on the road to Emmaus, two disciples "set out without delay" (cf. Lk 24:33) and travelled several miles, uphill and in the dark, spurred on by the irrepressible joy of Easter that burned in their hearts (cf. v. 32). The same joy that led Peter, on the shore of the Lake of Galilee, after catching sight of the risen Jesus, to leave the boat with the others, to throw himself immediately into the water and to swim quickly towards him (cf. Jn 21:7). At Easter, then, the journey quickens and becomes a race, since humanity now sees the goal of its journey, the meaning of its destiny, Jesus Christ, and is called to make haste to meet him, who is the hope of the world. May we too make haste to progress on a journey of reciprocal trust: trust among individuals, peoples and nations. May we allow ourselves to experience amazement at the joyful proclamation of Easter, at the light that illumines the darkness and the gloom in which, all too often, our world finds itself enveloped. Let us make haste to surmount our conflicts and divisions, and to open our hearts to those in greatest need. Let us hasten to pursue paths of peace and fraternity. Let us rejoice at the concrete signs of hope that reach us from so many countries, beginning with those that offer assistance and welcome to all fleeing from war and poverty. At the same time, along this journey we also encounter many stumbling blocks, which make it more difficult and demanding to hasten towards the Risen Lord. To him, then, let us make our prayer: Lord, help us to run to meet you! Help us to open our hearts!

Fr. Ed McNulty
Pastor

STEWARDSHIP

Empty

Andrew was born with mild Down Syndrome. He loved to go to religion class on Sunday. His classmates mostly ignored him. On the Sunday after Easter the teacher gave out plastic eggs, one to each child, and they went outside to find symbols of new life to put in the eggs. Back indoors the teacher opened the first egg: there was a beautiful flower. In the second was a butterfly and in the third a green leaf. The fourth was empty. The children said, "Somebody did it wrong." "It's mine," Andrew said. "I did do it right! The tomb is empty!" There was sudden silence. From that time on, Andrew became a part of the group, set free from the tomb of his difference. Andrew died last summer. During his funeral Mass, nine eight-year old children, together with their teacher, marched up to the altar, not with flowers to cover over the stark reality of death, but with an empty, old pantyhose egg, and placed it on the altar steps. The tomb is empty!

Around the Parish...

Back to Basics Date Change

The last gathering has been rescheduled

"The Mass" (a Word on Fire video series)

Why is the Eucharist celebrated at the Mass and considered the "Source and Summit" of the Christian Life? Come and find out.

When: Sunday, Apr. 23, 2023

Time: 10:15am - 11:30am

Place: St. Francis Room (south end of the parking lot)

Contact Gerry Barlow for information about this series at religioused@stmarymagonline.org.

Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit

St. Mary Magdalene will be hosting an exhibit on Eucharistic miracles, developed by a beatified Italian teenager. The exhibit is part of the legacy of Blessed Carlo Acutis, who researched and documented Eucharistic miracles from throughout history and around the world before his death from acute leukemia at the age of 15.

Date: Saturday, April 15th and Sunday, April 16th

Time: After All Masses

Place: St. Mary Magdalene Parish Hall

Cost: Free admission

This enigmatic photographic exhibit includes historically documented Eucharistic miracles that have occurred in various countries since the Last Supper. These are visible proof of Jesus Christ's Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

Stop by the exhibit and witness how Jesus has miraculously manifested himself throughout the centuries and how this proves He is present, body, blood, soul and divinity in the Holy Eucharist. Members of all faiths are welcome.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Today will be observed throughout the Church as Divine Mercy Sunday. To encourage its celebration with special devotion, the observance is enriched by a plenary indulgence which is granted to the faithful by the Holy Father.

Following the 11:00 a.m. Mass, you are invited to participate in Divine Mercy prayers for peace.

Jesus, I trust in You

Coffee and Donuts Every Sunday after the 9:00am Mass

Moms' Catholic Book Study

Announcing New Study Beginning April 19, 2023

The Story of a Soul conveys St. Therese of Lisieux's "Little Way" of spiritual childhood - her "elevator" to Heaven, as she called it. This method was approved by Pope Pius XI as a way for all to grow in holiness through unflinching confidence and childlike delight in God's merciful love. Again and again in this book, St. Therese shows us how her "Little Way" of love and trust comes straight from Sacred Scripture. The required book is available through Amazon. Please purchase the "study guide" edition - the book shown in the photo to the left.

Dates: April 19, 2023 - June 7, 2023

Prayer for the Deployed Military

As a faith community let's pray for all those who serve our country during these troubled times.

We pray especially for those of our parish who are deployed or will soon be deployed. We also thank God for those who have returned safely.

Let us pray:

Almighty God, be their constant companion and strength in every adversity. May they always experience your presence, love and comfort.
