

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FEBRUARY 1, 2026

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake
of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.”
(Matthew 5:1-12)

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scriptural Reflection

The Beatitudes can certainly seem illogical and absurd unless we consider the person who is speaking. It is Jesus, the one who became "lowly and despised" in order to become "our righteousness, our sanctification, and our redemption." He personified the anawim to become the true hope of all people. Jesus is the insulted, persecuted one who relies on God alone; he is also the merciful peacemaker and source of all blessing.

To the poor, the mourning, the persecuted, Jesus says, "Everything that you are suffering, I have suffered. God did not abandon me and I will not abandon you." To the rich, the powerful, the content, Jesus says, "I shared every blessing I had with the poor and the lowly, even my life. Do the same and you too will know God's saving mercy." To both Jesus says, "Trust in the Lord of infinite possibilities, who will bless you with courage and peace and true joy together."

Living God's Word

The circle of blessing pivots on trust in God. The Christian community that embraces lowliness will be a place of blessing both here and in eternity. All we really need do is to follow our illogical leader, Jesus, the One whose trust in God brought blessing to the whole world.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

A big thank you to all who helped to make last weekend's pancake breakfast such a success. I am so grateful for those in the parish and in the school who gave so generously of their time for this wonderful event.

A reminder that next weekend is the Super Bowl and as has been our practice, there will NOT be a 6:00pm Mass next weekend (Feb. 8th).

This past week the Church celebrated the annual World Day for Consecrated Life. Consecrated life is a vocation, a call from God, to conform one's life to Jesus Christ through living as he did in poverty, chastity and obedience, dedicating oneself to God for service to the Church and for the salvation of the world. The most well-known form of consecrated life, and that which is the prototype for the other forms, is religious life. In this form, men and women pronounce publicly the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, live in community, and share a common apostolate. The greatest numbers of religious are women, called sisters. Among the men, there are brothers, deacons and priests. Within religious life there are two general forms of living: active or apostolic and contemplative. While all religious have prayer as their first and foremost duty, apostolic institutes are actively involved in the works of the Church – education, health care, serving the poor. Contemplative religious, however, spend a major portion of their day in prayer, separating themselves from the world in order to offer their prayers and sacrifices for the needs of the Church and the world. Through the years our parish has been blessed by the prayer, work and sacrifice of many religious let us continue to pray for them and for their various ministries.

For our reflection this week I share with you a passage from Pope Francis Encyclical Fratelli Tutti (On Fraternity and Social Friendship). The Holy Father wrote: True wisdom demands an encounter with reality. Today, however, everything can be created, disguised and altered. A direct encounter even with the fringes of reality can thus prove intolerable. A mechanism of selection then comes into play, whereby I can immediately separate likes from dislikes, what I consider attractive from what I deem distasteful. In the same way, we can choose the people with whom we wish to share our world. Persons or situations we find unpleasant or disagreeable are simply deleted in today's virtual networks; a virtual circle is then created, isolating us from the real world in which we are living. The ability to sit down and listen to others, typical of interpersonal encounters, is paradigmatic of the welcoming attitude shown by those who transcend narcissism and accept others, caring for them and welcoming them into their lives. Yet "today's world is largely a deaf world... At times, the frantic pace of the modern world prevents us from listening attentively to what another person is saying. Halfway through, we interrupt him and want to contradict what he has not even finished saying. We must not lose our ability to listen".

Saint Francis "heard the voice of God, he heard the voice of the poor, he heard the voice of the infirm and he heard the voice of nature. He made of them a way of life. My desire is that the seed that Saint Francis planted may grow in the hearts of many". As silence and careful listening disappear, replaced by a frenzy of texting, this basic structure of sage human communication is at risk. A new lifestyle is emerging, where we create only what we want and exclude all that we cannot control or know instantly and superficially. This process, by its intrinsic logic, blocks the kind of serene reflection that could lead us to a shared wisdom. Together, we can seek the truth in dialogue, in relaxed conversation or in passionate debate. To do so calls for perseverance; it entails moments of silence and suffering, yet it can patiently embrace the broader experience of individuals and peoples. The flood of information at our fingertips does not make for greater wisdom. Wisdom is not born of quick searches on the internet nor is it a mass of unverified data. That is not the way to mature in the encounter with truth. Conversations revolve only around the latest data; they become merely horizontal and cumulative. We fail to keep our attention focused, to penetrate to the heart of matters, and to recognize what is essential to give meaning to our lives. Freedom thus becomes an illusion that we are peddled, easily confused with the ability to navigate the internet. The process of building fraternity, be it local or universal, can only be undertaken by spirits that are free and open to authentic encounters.

Pastor

Kid's Eye View

One of God's main jobs is making people. God makes babies because they are smaller and easier to make. God's other important job is listening to prayers. God doesn't have time to watch TV or see a movie on account of this. God sees everything and hears everything and is everywhere, which keeps God pretty busy. So don't waste God's time asking for something your parents said you couldn't have. Jesus is God's Son. He was good and kind and did all the hard work like performing miracles and trying to teach people who didn't want to learn about God. They finally got tired of Jesus and they crucified him. Jesus told God that they didn't know what they were doing and to forgive them and God said OK. His Dad (God) appreciated everything that Jesus had done and all his hard work. God said that Jesus didn't have to go on the road anymore. He could stay in heaven. So he did. Now he helps his Dad out and you can pray any time and they are sure to hear you because one of them is always on duty. You should always go to Mass on Sunday because it makes God happy, and if there's anybody you want to make happy, it's God. It's good to know God's always around when you're scared in the dark or when you get thrown in deep water by big kids. But you shouldn't just always think of what God can do for you. God put me here so it's up to me to figure out what I can do for God.
