

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FEBRUARY 16, 2025

And he came down with them and stood on a stretch of level ground. A great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon.

And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said:

“Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours.

Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied.

Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh.

Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man.

Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way.

But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

But woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry.

Woe to you who laugh now, for you will grieve and weep.

Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way.”

Living God's Word

The Sermon on the Mount has Jesus telling us how blessed are certain ways of living that are sure to meet with disapproval from the rest of society. Jesus also stated: "Woe to you when all speak well of you" (Luke 6:26)! We need to ponder how far we'll go for the sake of our neighbors' approval.

All That We Have Seen

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

One of the memorable scenes in an English novel of some years ago describes a little boy named Bron going to church for the first time with his governess. He watches with interest every part of the service. The preacher then climbs into the high pulpit and Bron hears him deliver a piece of terrible news about a brave and kind man who a long time ago was viciously ill treated, nailed to a cross, and who feels a dreadful pain even now because there is so much that needs to be done in accordance with his teaching. Little Bron thinks the preacher is telling the story so the people in the pews will rise up and take up the cause.

The service ends and to Bron's shock and surprise the people walk away as if they had not heard such terrible news, as if there was nothing that demanded their attention. Bron is crying as he leaves the church, and when the governess discovers the reason, she says: "You shouldn't have taken all that the preacher said to heart. Quit your crying, people are going to think you strange!"

The story gives us pause to consider how often we fail to do the right thing, how we hold back honest and rightful emotions, how we keep silent when a prejudice is stated, how we say nothing in the face of an injustice, all because we don't wish to be thought strange.

LUNA'S LIGHT

Dear Parishioners,

Soooo, now that my dad is on vacation, I would like to address a few things. I would like to know where the nearest Princess Puppy Spa is, so I can have my hair and nails done. I love to be pampered, but I don't really need that stuff on my face, I'll just go outside and roll around in the mud for a bit and then put cucumbers on my eyes, although I prefer to put them in my mouth. Yeah and we can skip those rocks. They are waaaaay too hot for my delicate skin.

Can Uber Eats send me some Pupperoni Pizza? I'm sure my dad won't mind. Snacks are always welcome. I've been watching my waist and It's getting easier to see every day.

Love & Licks,

Luna McNulty,
