THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

JUNE 7, 2026

I Am The Living Bread

I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

(John 6:51-58)

St. Mary Magdalene Mission Statement

We, the Eucharistic Community of St. Mary Magdalene, are called to conversion in Jesus Christ.

Our community life and worship are based on the Bible, the Sacraments, and the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Living the love of Christ impacts our moral, intellectual, and religious life, and makes us a caring community that brings hope to our families, neighborhood, and society.

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Scriptural Reflection

Since early this morning Dean has been working to prepare dinner for his wife Sheila's birthday. While the bread dough rose he bought fresh vegetables, cheese, and pasta. As the aroma of baking bread filled the house Carla helped her father cook his special sauce. Later there were vegetables to prepare, pie to bake, presents to wrap, and the table to set with little George's hand-painted placemats. At last Dean calls out "Dinner's ready!" The family gathers and the prayer begins: "Bless us, O Lord and these thy gifts, which we are about to receive from thy bounty through Christ our Lord. Amen."

In shared meals the gift of food is made more nourishing by the gift of community. Today's Scripture invites us to unwrap some of the "gifts" that we bless and receive in our Eucharistic meal. Christ shares the gift of himself in the word, the cup, and the loaf. Like Dean's family, we in the community also share the gift of ourselves with one another in our sharing of the Body and Blood of Christ. The living, breathing Body of Christ in the community nourishes the life of Christ in each of us when we sit down together at the Eucharistic table.

Living God's Word

Some families always set an extra place at the table as a sign that guests are welcome to share their circle of nourishment. Surely everyone is welcome at our Eucharistic liturgies. But do we make that spirit of hospitality a reality in our parishes?

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ and so I thought I might offer for your reflection a brief passage from Ecclesia de Eucharistia an Encyclical by Pope John Paul II in which he writes: "The Eucharistic Sacrifice is intrinsically directed to the inward union of the faithful with Christ through communion; we receive the very One who offered himself for us, we receive his body which he gave up for us on the Cross and his blood which he "poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins". We are reminded of his words: "As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats me will live because of me". Jesus himself reassures us that this union, which he compares to that of the life of the Trinity, is truly realized. The Eucharist is a true banquet, in which Christ offers himself as our nourishment. When for the first time Jesus spoke of this food, his listeners were astonished and bewildered, which forced the Master to emphasize the objective truth of his words: "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life within you". This is no metaphorical food: "My flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed." Pope Francis also wrote: "Each time we receive the Bread of Life, Jesus comes to give new meaning to our fragilities. He reminds us that in his eyes we are more precious than we think. He tells us he is pleased if we share our fragilities with him. He repeats to us that his mercy is not afraid of our miseries. And above all he heals us with love from those fragilities that we cannot heal on our own. What fragilities? Let's think. That of feeling resentment toward those who have done us harm – we cannot heal from this on our own; that of distancing ourselves from others and closing off within ourselves – we cannot heal from that on our own; that of feeling sorry for ourselves and lamenting without finding peace; from this too, we cannot heal on our own. It is He who heals us with his presence, with his bread, with the Eucharist. The Eucharist is an effective medicine for these closures. The Bread of Life, indeed, heals rigidity and transforms it into docility. The Eucharist heals because it joins with Jesus: it makes us assimilate his way of living, his ability to break himself apart and give himself to brothers and sisters, to respond to evil with good. He gives us the courage to go outside of ourselves and bend down with love toward the fragility of others. As God does with us. This is the logic of the Eucharist: we receive Jesus who loves us and heals our fragilities in order to love others and help them in their fragilities; and this lasts our entire life.

Once again, this year we will be celebrating a novena of masses in honor of Father's Day. If you would like to enroll your father, living or deceased, in these masses please fill out an intention envelope and return it either in the Sunday basket or directly to the parish office by June 21st. The Novena will begin on Tuesday, June 23rd.

STEWARDSHIP

The Crucial Difference

A man dreamed that he was having a conversation with God. He felt comfortable enough to ask God a question, "Lord, I'm curious. I wonder if it would be possible for you to show me what heaven and hell are like." The Lord led the man to two doors. He opened one of the doors and the man looked inside. In the middle of the room was a large round table. In the middle of the table was a big pot of stew, which smelled so delicious it made the man's mouth water. But the people sitting around the table were thin and sickly-looking. They seemed to be famished. They were holding spoons with very long handles that were strapped tightly to their arms and each one was dipping desperately into the pot of stew to take a spoonful, but the stew was spilling back into the pot because they could not bend their elbows. No matter how they tried they could not get the spoons back into their mouths. The man shuddered at the sight of all their misery and suffering. The Lord turned to him and said, "You have seen hell." They then went to the next room and opened the door. It was exactly the same as the first one. There was another large round table with the big savory pot of stew in the middle, which made the man's mouth water all over again. The people had exactly the same style of long-handled spoons strapped on their arms, but these people were well nourished and plump, laughing and talking happily together. The man was quite puzzled and said, "I don't understand what's going on. This is heaven?" "Yes indeed," said God with a smile. "In this place the people have learned to feed one another."

Moms' Catholic Book Study
Join us at the Bay for Faith and Fellowship

From Islam to Christ is about a women's path to Christianity. After her parents' divorce, Derya Little rejected her family's Islamic faith and became an atheist. She tried to convince a Christian missionary that there is no God but was converted to Christ instead. Her path did not end there, while attending a Turkish university and serving as a Christian youth minister, she found herself comparing the teaching of Protestantism and Catholicism. During her doctoral studies, Derya entered the Catholic Church. The book shows that the grace and the mercy of God know no bounds. The good news of salvation of Jesus Christ reaches souls in the most unlikely places.

Million Meal Event

In the heart of every person, hope dwells, and we are called to be tangible signs of that hope in the world.

On Saturday and Sunday, June 13th and 14th, parish and school communities from across the Diocese of San Diego, will come together to package two million meals for people experiencing food insecurity.

This extraordinary event will take place at Cathedral Catholic High School in San Diego and is a powerful opportunity to manifest hope for our brothers and sisters living in poverty.

This fun and rewarding experience will benefit those who are hungry both around the world and, for the first time ever, right here at home, one million meals will be distributed locally by Catholic Charities Diocese of San Diego to help feed families in need throughout our own community. Gather your family friends, parish group, or organization and join more than 5,100 volunteers of all ages in this meaningful act of service.
