Church of St. Mary Magdalene

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME — JUNE 21, 2026

Courage Under Persecution

Jesus said to the Twelve, "Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

(Matthew 10:26-33)

Jesus Is Here - Come As You Are

Jesus is always available. Pray or sit and rest or have a little chat. He wants to be with you. He IS with you. Whatever your heart is feeling, He wants to meet you there. The church is open until 4:00pm weekdays and later on weekends. Come and see. Spend some time with Him.

Welcome!

No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church,
No matter what your current family or marital situation,
No matter what your past or present situation,
No matter what your personal history,
age, background or race,
No matter what your own self image or self-esteem.
You are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved,
and respected at St. Mary Magdalene Church!

We are so happy to have you here!

Living Stewardship Now

Many missionaries are risking their lives for Christ today. Find a priest, religious, or lay person serving in some dangerous or difficult place and send them e-mails, letters, packages of useful materials, donations, and prayers. Your support can help give them the courage to continue.

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scriptural Reflection

Jean Améry, a Holocaust survivor tortured by the Nazis, later wrote about the abyss of human evil. He described his reaction as an "indignant despair." Haven't we all, to some degree, felt that abyss opened beneath us? A sudden loss, a violent headline, a moment of loneliness or panic, when the world feels fragile and meaning seems to collapse?

It is to this fear that Jesus speaks in today's Gospel: "Do not be afraid of those who can kill the body." (Matthew 10:28). He does not deny evil or pretend we will never suffer. Instead, He reframes the abyss: do not fear those who can kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Your life is seen, known, and counted by the Father. Even the hairs of your head, even the sparrow's fall.

This is no superficial comfort. Jesus himself has entered the abyss: suffering, death, even our sense of forsakenness, and he has come through it. That is why his words, "Do not be afraid," hold such weight. They do not erase the abyss but build a bridge across it.

Faith is not pretending everything is fine. It is staring into the abyss and still choosing trust. And in that trust, we discover we are never alone. Christ stands with us, and the Father's care surrounds us. That is the only comfort deep enough for our (often fearful) hearts.

— Father John Muir

Living God's Word

This week and next Matthew refers to "little ones." Who are the little ones in your community? How are you called to reach out to them? What sacrifice will you have to make? What will be the reward?

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend as we celebrate Father's Day. I would like to take this opportunity to share with you a brief passage from the Apostolic Exhortation Familiaris Consortio of Pope John Paul II in which he writes about the importance of the role of Fatherhood in the family. "Within the conjugal and family communion-community, the man is called upon to live his gift and role as husband and father. In his wife he sees the fulfillment of God's intention: 'It is not good that the man should be alone, I will make him a helper fit for him,' and he makes his own the cry of Adam, the first husband: 'This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh….' Love for his wife as mother of their children and love for the children themselves are for the man the natural way of understanding and fulfilling his own fatherhood. Above all where social and cultural conditions so easily encourage a father to be less concerned with his family or at any rate less involved in the work of education, efforts must be made to restore socially the conviction that the place and task of the father in and for the family is of unique and irreplaceable importance. As experience teaches, the absence of a father causes psychological and moral imbalance and notable difficulties in family relationships, as does, in contrary circumstances, the oppressive presence of a father, especially where there still prevails the phenomenon of 'machismo,' or a wrong superiority of male prerogatives which humiliates women and inhibits the development of healthy family relationships. In revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God, a man is called upon to ensure the harmonious and united development of all the members of the family: he will perform this task by exercising generous responsibility for the life conceived under the heart of the mother, by a more solicitous commitment to education, a task he shares with his wife, by work which is never a cause of division in the family but promotes its unity and stability, and by means of the witness he gives of an adult Christian life which effectively introduces the children into the living experience of Christ and the Church."

Next weekend our parish in union with Catholic parishes throughout the world will be participating in the annual Peter's Pence Collection. Contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection enable the Holy Father to respond with immediate emergency assistance to the most disadvantaged throughout the world—those who suffer as a result of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Your contribution will allow the Holy Father to respond with timely and effective emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters throughout the world. If you have not already done so I invite you to use the contribution envelope and return your donation by either dropping it in the collection basket next week or by mailing it directly to our parish office.

I would like to remind you that we will be having the parking lot resurfaced the week of July 5th -10th. The lot will be closed to all traffic (vehicle and pedestrian) during those dates. Due to the need for the asphalt to "set", the restriping of the parking lot will take place approximately a month later. As I am sure you are aware this is a long overdue project and we hope will significantly reduce the risk of falls or other injuries.

Fr. Ed McNulty,
Pastor

Stewardship

When I was a teenager, after a homecoming dance one year I took my date for a walk on the Potomac in downtown Alexandria. The moon was out and I was struck by how the light shimmered on the water. I remember focusing to try to see all the details of the dancing rays on the ripples. My date didn't see it and didn't really get it. She thought it was no big deal. It was a great date and a fun night, but for that one moment we saw the world from two completely different vantage points.

Two of the greatest gifts from God to each of us are life and time. Without taking care, we can easily miss the grandeur and beauty of both. Being mindful as an everyday steward means pausing to see the detail in all that exists around us. God's creation is not something created with a broad brush, but instead with the intricacies of a master painter.

God created all things with purpose and a complexity only the divine could fully comprehend. Every single hair on our head has been counted! But when we take a moment to reflect on the beauty that is created by that complexity, we allow ourselves to revel in God's generosity. There is so much to give thanks for in this life. But you and I can't give thanks to God unless we really stop to take notice. When was the last time you stared in awe at the moon?

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

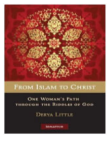
Moms' Catholic Book Study

Join us at the Bay for Faith and Fellowship



From Islam to Christ is about a women's path to Christianity. After her parents' divorce, Derya Little rejected her family's Islamic faith and became an atheist. She tried to convince a Christian missionary that there is no God but was converted to Christ instead. Her path did not end there, while attending a Turkish university and serving as a Christian youth minister, she found herself comparing the teaching of Protestantism and Catholicism. During her doctoral studies, Derya entered the Catholic Church. The book shows that the grace and the mercy of God know no bounds. The good news of salvation of Jesus Christ reaches souls in the most unlikely places.
