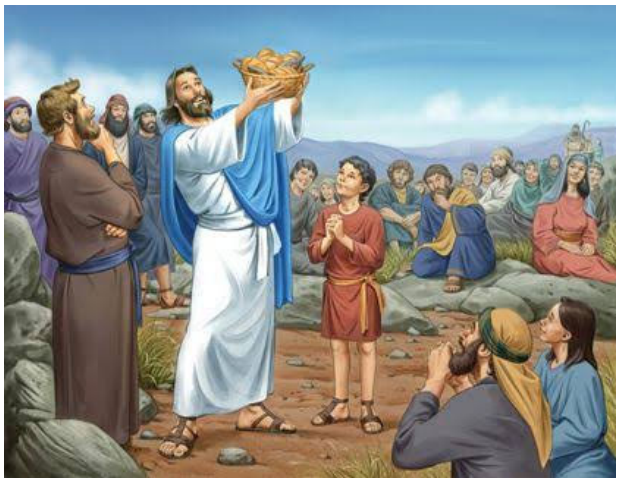
Church of St. Mary Magdalene

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME — AUGUST 2, 2026



When Jesus heard of it, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, "This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves." But they said to him, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have here." Then he said, "Bring them here to me," and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over - twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

Living God's Word

In the Gospel we hear that Jesus "was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick" (Matthew 14:14). Then we hear Jesus say to the disciples, "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves" (Matthew 14:16). How do these statements speak to your heart today?

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scriptural Reflection

Two years ago Michon and her children had gotten their own apartment and left the safety of the women's shelter behind. Three weeks ago she brought the children back for the first time since they had left. They came for the feast celebrating the grand opening of the shelter's new addition. The feast had felt just like old times, only better, with plenty of speeches, laughter, tears, and hugs, and more than enough food to go around. Michon was glad to be able to bring a big chicken salad to share. There had been plenty of meals when she had had nothing to contribute. At the feast everyone commented on how happy Michon's children looked and how much they'd grown. Since then she had already returned to the shelter four times as a volunteer.

A feast could be defined as a large gathering of people to share food and memories in celebration of a significant event or vision. Feasts have an amazing power to heal and nourish our spirits, to bind us together in love, and motivate us to care for one another. The feasts in today's scriptures illustrate the miraculous physical and spiritual nourishment that takes place when we gather for the Eucharist, to celebrate the memory and promise of "the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:39).

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend our parish welcomes Sister Domiciana Tenorio, a Dominican Sister of Saint Joseph from the Diocese of Malolos, Bulacan. Sister will be sharing with us the work of her community and inviting us to assist them with our prayers and financial support. Yellow envelopes for this collection can be found at the entrance of the church.

A few years ago, during a trip to Paraguay, Bolivia and Ecuador, Pope Francis said: The Gospel speaks to us of this kind of discipleship. It shows us the identity card of the Christian. Our calling card, our credentials. Jesus calls his disciples and sends them out, giving them clear and precise instructions. He challenges them to take on a whole range of attitudes and ways of acting. Sometimes these can strike us as exaggerated or even absurd. It would be easier to interpret these attitudes symbolically or "spiritually". But Jesus is quite precise, very clear. He doesn't tell them simply to do whatever they think they can. Let us think about some of these attitudes: "Take nothing for the journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money..." "When you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place" (cf. Mk 6:8-11). All this might seem quite unrealistic. We could concentrate on the words, "bread", "money", "bag", "staff", "sandals" and "tunic". And this would be fine. But it strikes me that one key word can easily pass unnoticed among the challenging words I have just listed. It is a word at the heart of Christian spirituality, of our experience of discipleship: "welcome". Jesus as the good master, the good teacher, sends them out to be welcomed, to experience hospitality. He says to them: "Where you enter a house, stay there". He sends them out to learn one of the hallmarks of the community of believers. We might say that a Christian is someone who has learned to welcome others, who has learned to show hospitality. Jesus does not send them out as men of influence, landlords, and officials armed with rules and regulations. Instead, he makes them see that the Christian journey is simply about changing hearts. One's own heart first all, and then helping to transform the hearts of others. It is about learning to live differently, under a different law, with different rules. It is about turning from the path of selfishness, conflict, division and superiority, and taking instead the path of life, generosity and love. It is about passing from a mentality which domineers, stifles and manipulates to a mentality which welcomes, accepts and cares. These are two contrasting mentalities, two ways of approaching our life and our mission. How many times do we see mission in terms of plans and programs. How many times do we see evangelization as involving any number of strategies, tactics, maneuvers, techniques, as if we could convert people on the basis of our own arguments. Today the Lord says to us quite clearly: in the mentality of the Gospel, you do not convince people with arguments, strategies or tactics.

You convince them by simply learning how to welcome them. The Church is a mother with an open heart. She knows how to welcome and accept, especially those in need of greater care, those in greater difficulty. The Church, as desired by Jesus, is the home of hospitality. And how much good we can do, if only we try to speak this language of hospitality, this language of receiving and welcoming. How much pain can be soothed, how much despair can be allayed in a place where we feel at home! This requires open doors, especially the doors of our heart. Welcoming the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick, the prisoner (Mt 25:34-37), the leper and the paralytic. Welcoming those who do not think as we do, who do not have faith or who have lost it. And sometimes, we are to blame. Welcoming the persecuted, the unemployed. Welcoming the different cultures, of which our earth is so richly blessed. Welcoming sinners, because each one of us is also a sinner.

Fr. Ed McNulty,
Pastor

Stewardship

Hidden In Plain Sight

A crowd gathers to hear Jesus, "about five thousand men, not counting women and children" (Matthew 14:21). Jesus' feeding of such a large gathering with only five small loaves and two fish is a true miracle. It is not a magic trick to impress or fool us. Jesus is using signs and symbols to get our attention. Signs and symbols play a vital role in all human culture, but they vary in meaning from place to place: a handshake, a bow, an embrace, or a hug can have many meanings. Jesus' feeding the crowd is a sign of his power and a symbol of the Eucharist we now share. But remember the phrase "not counting women and children." Who does "not count" among the crowd in the community of faith? How can we feed the hidden ones who are starving—for attention, a kind word, a helping hand? What can we do to make a difference?
