Church of St. Mary Magdalene

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME — AUGUST 9, 2026

Then he made the disciples get into the boat and precede him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When it was evening he was there alone. Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it. During the fourth watch of the night, he came toward them, walking on the sea. When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. "It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught him, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" After they got into the boat, the wind died down. Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying, "Truly, you are the Son of God." (Matthew 14:22-33)

Culture of Life Ministry Corner - Human Trafficking

Human trafficking violates the sanctity, dignity, and fundamental rights of the human person. We each have a responsibility to fight against the violation and degradation of our brothers and sisters. It is important to know that anyone can become a victim, and no one is immune. Did you know that San Diego is considered one of the top 13 human trafficking hotspots in the United States?

How can you help?

- Be informed. Visit USCCB's website on Human Trafficking to educate yourself (https://www.usccb.org/offices/migration-refugee-services/human-trafficking).
- Become involved. Join an anti-trafficking coalition in San Diego.
- Be an ethical consumer and employer. Research companies and how their products are made.
- Be observant. Look for indicators of human trafficking.
- Take action. If you or someone you know has experienced any indicators of human trafficking, call National Human Trafficking at 1-888-373-7888.

"It is not possible to remain indifferent before the knowledge that human beings are being bought and sold like goods." ~ Pope Francis

Living God's Word

Those moments arise for each of us when we come face to face with death or the possibility of real failure. Then it is no longer so easy or so enticing to step off the roller coaster platform, for suddenly the ride is no longer carefree or without risk. Yet through the risk, it is possible that life in God may be found.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scriptural Reflection

This Sunday's Gospel features Jesus picking his way to a boat of disciples through a storm of windy darkness over a sea of nighttime waves. At three in the morning, he finds them being tossed about in their own storm of windy fear. Then Peter, who always seems to say the right thing by saying the wrong thing at the right time, calls out across the tumult, "Lord, if it is really you, tell me to come to you across the water." So Jesus calls back and says, "Come."

That is when Peter must decide if he will step off the platform and into the roller coaster, or if he will play it safe. Amazingly, Peter decides not to play it safe but rather steps into the swirling storm of life. There he begins to sink and drown, but it's also there that he discovers God reaching out and grasping him. Had he played it safe and stayed in the boat, he might never have known God's saving hand. He also realizes that what Jesus came preaching was not an amusement park of fun and games but rather a kingdom where life is known only through great risk.

Such is the story of all of our lives when we must choose between a life of apparent security and the real life that is always revealed through risk and trust. Such choices may arise when we face the prospect of marriage counseling or first-time parenting or late-life parenting or job loss or spouse loss or health loss or even what may appear to be loss of faith. At these times, not to step out of the boat and into the swirling storm, not to risk all for the sake of all is to lose all. On the other hand, to step out, even though it be with great fear, is to meet our saving God.

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners,

This Saturday the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary. This feast, which has been celebrated in the Church since the early 5th century, was officially proclaimed by Pope Pius XII in 1950 when he stated: "The Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory." In her assumption, Mary was preserved from decay of death. Mary, the mother of the Savior, is the first to share in the Lord's resurrection and therefore she is the living model for all people whose future destiny is with the risen Lord. In a homily a few years ago, on the occasion of this celebration, Pope John Paul II reminded us, "Perhaps, more than in the past, modern man is consumed by material interests and concerns. He seeks security and often feels lonely and anxious. Then what can be said of the enigma of death? Mary's Assumption is an event that concerns us precisely because every humans is destined to die. But death is not the last word. Death - the mystery of the Virgin's Assumption assures us - is the passage to life, the encounter with Love. It is the passage to the eternal happiness in store for those who toil for truth and justice and do their utmost to follow Christ." Please take note, the Feast is NOT a holy day of obligation this year. We will celebrate the Feast of the Assumption at our Saturday morning Mass (7:45am).

Believe it or not, our school resumes soon. Beginning Wednesday, August 12th, we will welcome our teachers and staff back and then the following week, almost 600 students in preschool through 8th grade will begin the 2026-2027 school year. I am grateful for all those who have worked this summer to prepare our school grounds and classrooms for this new academic year. Please pray for our students as and as all those going back to school in these next few weeks. May God grant them wisdom and peace as they continue their studies.

In 2007, Pope Benedict XVI spoke on the importance of education when he said: It is education and especially Christian education which shapes life based on God who is love (cf.1 Jn 4:8, 16), and had need of that closeness which is proper to love. Especially today, when isolation and loneliness are a widespread condition to which noise and group conformity is no real remedy, personal guidance becomes essential, giving those who are growing up the assurance that they are loved, understood, and listened to. In practice, this guidance must make tangible the fact that our faith is not something of the past, that it can be lived today and that in living it we really find our good. Thus, boys and girls and young people may be helped to free themselves from common prejudices and will realize that the Christian way of life is possible and reasonable, indeed, is by far the most reasonable.

However, it is very obvious that in educating and forming people in the faith the family has its own fundamental role and primary responsibility. Parents, in fact, are those through whom the child, at the start of life, has the first and crucial experience of love, of a love which is actually not only human but also a reflection of God's love for him…. Therefore, the Christian family, the small "domestic Church", and the larger family of the Church must take care to develop the closest collaboration, especially with regard to the education of children. ... It is up to us to seek to respond to the question of truth, fearlessly juxtaposing the proposal of faith with reason of our time. In this way, we will help young people to broaden the horizons of their intelligence, to open themselves to the mystery of God, in whom is found life's meaning and direction, and to overcome the conditioning of a rationality which trusts only what can be the object of experiment and calculation. …The task of education passes through freedom but also requires authority. Therefore, especially when it is a matter of educating in faith, the figure of the witness and the role of the witnessing is central. A witness of Christ does not merely transmit information but is personally involved with the truth Christ proposes and, through the coherency of his own life, becomes a dependable reference point.

Stewardship

Sound Of Silence

Jennifer went on her first retreat. Exhausted from looking after young children and her ailing mother-in-law, she counted on some rest! She hadn't counted on the silence of the retreat weekend, and uneasiness began to rise in her. She was used to constant noise. By mid-afternoon Jennifer was panicking and ready to leave. She shared her distress to the retreat director. "What are you running from, Jennifer?" he asked quietly. Jennifer blurted out, "God!" She startled herself, realizing there was no quiet for God's voice in her life. Jennifer relaxed into the silence. At the end of the retreat she listened carefully to the stories of Elijah, who heard God in a tiny breeze, and Peter, who let wind and waves distract him so that he sank in the water. Jennifer made two changes in her life. The TV was only turned on for certain programs, and she made time simply to be alone with God in weekly Eucharistic Adoration.
