

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 20, 2023

At that time, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." But he did not say a word in answer to her. His disciples came and asked him, "Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us." He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But the woman came and did him homage, saying, "Lord, help me." He said in reply, "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

Three O'clock Prayer

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and an ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world.

O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the world and empty Yourself out upon us.

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You (3X)

Jesus, I trust In You (3X)

We joyously welcome the newest members of our faith community.

The Canaanite woman seems to convert Jesus by expressing faith in him and faith in herself. How might you express your faith in God, in others, and in yourself? How might God use your faith to convert others?

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

"Beggars can't be choosers!" we might say to a child who asks for a different candy bar from the one we have handed him. "Beggars can't be choosers!" we might think as we watch a struggling mother sort through hand-me-downs at the free store. "Beggars can't be choosers!" we might tell ourselves when we are mistreated by someone we rely on to supply our needs. Those four little words may seem logical and harmless. Yet, how many children, unemployed, elderly, sick, or otherwise vulnerable people have lost their self-respect and stopped voicing their needs because they believe those four little words!

Today's scriptures challenge us to stop using, or even thinking, those four words. They invite us to see that, yes, beggars can and should be choosers. The first and second readings seem directed to those who feel they deserve better than others. They show God's mercy extending to all who call on and love the name of the Lord, and remind us that all of us have disobeyed, thus all of us are beggars. The Gospel speaks to those who feel they deserve worse than others. The Canaanite woman is held up as a model to imitate, not someone to be scorned and rejected. We are encouraged never again to let feelings of unworthiness convince us that our needs don't deserve a hearing, respect, and a response.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

It is that time of year again when schools are starting back up and education is at the forefront of our minds. This is true not only with the regular academic schedule but also with our religious education program. If you have a child in need of ongoing formation in the faith, I would encourage you see our parish website to register on line or to contact our Religious Education office as soon as possible so that our staff can assist you.

Believe it or not our school resumes this week. Beginning last Wednesday, we welcomed our teachers and staff back and then this week almost 350 students will begin the 2023-24 school year. I am so grateful that we are able to begin this year with all of our teachers, staff and students on campus. Again, I am grateful for all those who have worked this summer to prepare our school grounds and classrooms for this new academic year. Over the summer, in addition to regular maintenance and repair, air conditioning was added to the convent building for our teachers and students as well as the Sisters who live in the building. It should make for a much more comfortable year for everyone. Please pray for our students as well as all those going back to school in these next few weeks. May God grant them wisdom and peace as they continue their studies. Please also be aware of the extra little pedestrians and increased traffic during school hours particularly during morning and afternoons.

In keeping with our desire to be as transparent as possible this week you will find the parish annual report. This report is a brief review of the parish financial situation for the fiscal year 2022-23 which ended June 30, 2023. In addition we have included some statistical information regarding our celebration of the sacraments to demonstrate how our parish is growing. I invite you to review this information and should you have any questions or concerns please do not hesitate to contact me.

Often we come to mass and do not think about all those who help make the mass run smoothly due to their ongoing ministry as a Lector, Eucharistic Minister or Usher. We tend to assume that these important ministries will just get done. However, due to age, illness, relocation etc., we are in desperate need of new ministers at our Sunday and weekday liturgies. If you would be willing to serve in the ministry of Lector, Eucharistic Minister or Usher please contact me as soon as possible.

These are relatively easy ministries and are a great way to serve our parish and giving back to God for all the blessings he has bestowed upon you. All necessary training will be provided. Please consider how you might help.

Fr. Ed McNulty
Pastor

STEWARDSHIP

Inside Or Outside?

The Jesus we meet in today's Gospel seems a bit stand-offish. He appears at first to ignore the Canaanite woman's pleas to heal her child! Matthew seems to be suggesting that, until this point in his ministry, Jesus himself thought that his mission was only to the Jewish people. When he is confronted by a Canaanite, and a woman at that, he seems baffled. Her sheer determination to make him listen ensures that he cannot continue to ignore her. More importantly, Jesus acknowledges that her faith in him is equal to that of any of the Jewish people he has met so far. In the end, Jesus praises her faith and heals her daughter. Matthew was writing his Gospel for a community of Jewish Christians who had identified Jesus as the Messiah—the One promised by God to generations of the Jewish people. They were aware, however, that the Christian faith was attracting people of other races and other religions. They would, inevitably, have been struggling to work out how this fit with all the prophecies of the Hebrew scriptures that foretold a Messiah who was destined to save Israel. The meeting between Jesus and the Canaanite woman offers them a clue about how to understand this situation. When Jesus is challenged to heal the outsider, his initial reaction is to refuse; but then he sees her great faith, and this far outweighs the fact that she does not belong to the people he primarily came to save. In this story the new Jewish Christian community must have found help to see that their initial reluctance to admit outsiders was understandable, and then to recognize that God plants faith in others too—and that it is faith rather than background that opens the doors into the Kingdom.
