Church of St. Mary Magdalene

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME — AUGUST 23, 2026

When Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” They replied, “Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter said in reply, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” Jesus said to him in reply, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Messiah.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scriptural Reflection

Certain questions change lives, depending on our answer: "Do you take this person to be your lawfully wedded husband/wife?" "Do you want this job?" "Can you forgive me?" The question Jesus asks today is one that certainly changes lives. Our response is not simply an academic exercise, a matter of knowing the right answer we learned from a book. Our answer must lead to a commitment that is to be lived out each day of our lives.

Peter's answer certainly changed the course of his life. Jesus recognized that it was not Peter's innate knowledge, or that of any other person, that had given Peter his response: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." It was the Father. And so Jesus declares that Peter will be the one to lead the other disciples and all who would come after. Simon, son of John, fisherman, husband, brother—and one who would deny he ever knew Christ!—he was to be the rock on which Jesus would build the church. His response was life-changing.

Peter's answer was not a perfect one, as we shall see next week. Even so, Jesus accepts it as an indication that his Father is at work in those called to be with him who would continue his work. The Father chose to work in fallible human beings. We may not think of ourselves as rocks, but the future of the church depends on how well each one of us lives out the answer to this question, "Who do you say that I am?"

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners,

It is that time of year again when schools are starting back up and education is at the forefront of our minds. This year classes are full and our mission remains the same, helping our students become well rounded, faith filled, young men and women. I am so thankful for our School of the Madeline teachers and staff who have worked diligently throughout the summer to prepare for the school year with the challenges and blessings, which await us.

Just a reminder that our Religious Education programs have begun taking registrations. If you have a student in Kindergarten through Fifth grades in need of Religious Education please contact our Religious Education Office or see our parish web site for more information. Our youth programs also include preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation and so if you have a teenager in High School in need of preparation please contact our Youth Office. We also welcome adults who are interested in becoming Catholic or completing their sacraments of initiation (Eucharist and Confirmation). This year our OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults) program will be held on Sunday mornings. I am grateful for Craig and Jacqueline Rowe who will be leading our OCIA program again this year.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the members of the men's club who recently repaired a long overdue project of fixing the small corner of the property in front of our church. In addition, we have several other parish projects that are in various stages of completion. After the installation of the Church sound system, we were aware that we would need to upgrade some of our other equipment. We are in the process of getting bids on a new mixer and other sound equipment to update to the digital age. While finishing up on the Church system we have also begun to explore options to replace the sound system in the parish hall and add a projector and other equipment to assist with parish functions. Finally, work continues on our security system. Keen eyes may have noticed the cameras going up in the parking lot and around the outside of the parish hall. Once the project is completed there will be cameras around the outside of all our parish buildings and covering the parking lot.

Pope Leo recently released an Encyclical Letter Magnifica Humanitas: On Safeguarding the Human Person in the time of artificial intelligence. I would like to share with you one passage. The Holy Father wrote: The Church's vocation and duty to accompany humanity in the specifics of history leads her to recognize that earthly realities possess their own proper character and order.

The Second Vatican Council expressed this principle with particular precision in the Pastoral Constitution Gaudium et Spes, whose sixtieth anniversary we remembered and celebrated with gratitude on December 7, 2025: "If by the autonomy of earthly affairs is meant that created things and societies themselves enjoy their own laws and values… then the demand for autonomy is perfectly in order." This affirmation shows that creation bears the imprint of an original goodness that our human outlook must preserve, cultivate and bring to fulfilment. In this regard, the Church offers herself in a way that helps to interpret reality in all its depth. She supports with humble firmness the choices that promote the dignity of every person, the cohesion of communities and the good of all. The Church thus stands alongside the world without overpowering it, so that the promise of justice and peace that the Holy Spirit continues to sustain in the heart of humanity may come to fruition in every human endeavor. Stewardship

Not Hired, But Chosen

When a company is recruiting for a top management position the process is detailed and thorough, with many interviews for each candidate and a full review of educational background, professional credentials, references, previous experience, and more. No company wants to take a chance on a person who is anything other than the best available. Contrast this with today's Gospel account. Jesus first questions his disciples. Who do people say Jesus is? They give him several answers. Then he asks them who they say he is. It is impulsive, big-hearted Peter who exclaims, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Matthew 16:16). Think of Peter for a moment: a good Jew, but almost certainly illiterate and a fisherman by trade. Not exactly high up in the social order, is he? Nevertheless, Jesus saw not only what Peter was, but what he could become. He saw into the heart and mind of this man and said, "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church" (Matthew 16:18). Jesus was not without humor, as this was a play on words. The name Peter comes from the Greek word for rock (petros). The beginning of our Church, which today embraces one and a half billion people worldwide, lay in the hands of this one man and his fellow disciples. With the authority of God and the power of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, Jesus promised that ultimate evil would never prevail against it. Nevertheless, the Church is made up of flawed human beings who sometimes fail as followers of Jesus. We must never forget that even Peter himself, after Jesus chose him as "the rock," failed spectacularly by denying his Lord three times. When we fail, we should not walk away but strive even more to live a faithful Christian life.
