Church of St. Mary Magdalene

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER 27, 2026

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people. “What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, ‘Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.’ He said in reply, ‘I will not,’ but afterwards he changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, ‘Yes, sir,’ but did not go. Which of the two did his father’s will?” They answered, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him.”

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scriptural Reflection

In The Secret Life of Bees, August, an older black woman, is talking about "the problem with people" to Lily, a younger white woman who has run away from an abusive father. Lily has said that people don't really know what matters. But August says the deeper problem is that people do know what matters, but don't choose it.

God tells Ezekiel that virtue's proof is in choosing to do the right thing. What you choose to do matters. So be careful not to go off the right path at the end of your days. On the other hand, you might be off the right path for years, but end up hopping back on at the very end, and you will have life. It doesn't sound very fair; nevertheless, it's where you are when the end comes that counts. And you don't know when the end will come.

Jesus confronts the religious leaders with a parable. A father asks his two sons to do some work in the vineyard. One talks a good game but never makes it into the field; the other refuses outright, but then goes and does what his father asked. In telling this parable, Jesus compares these leaders unfavorably to the tax collectors and prostitutes. The elders must have been shocked.

"Have in you that same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus," writes Paul to his beloved Philippians. The attitude he urged on them was giving oneself for the sake of others—even unto death. In this way, we not only speak but also do "Yes." Choose to live Christ.

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners,

The month of October has been designated Respect for Life month. This provides us with the opportunity to pause and reflect on our responsibility as Catholics to live and to promote a "culture of life". In this time of continued social debate on issues such as abortion on demand, capital punishment, stem cell research, potential human cloning and euthanasia, it may be helpful for us to be aware of the words of Pope John Paul II who wrote the following in his Apostolic Letter entitled At The Beginning Of The Third Millennium: "A special commitment is needed with regard to certain aspects of the Gospel's radical message which are often less well understood, even to the point of making the Church's presence unpopular, but which nevertheless must be a part of her mission of charity. I am speaking of the duty to be committed to respect for the life of every human being, from conception until natural death. Likewise, the service of humanity leads us to insist, in season and out of season, that those using the latest advances of science, especially in the field of biotechnology, must never disregard fundamental ethical requirements by invoking a questionable solidarity which eventually leads to discriminating between one life and another and ignoring the dignity which belongs to every human being."

In the Church the month of October has traditionally been devoted to the intercession of Mary under the title of Our Lady of the Rosary. It is a time when we as individuals and families are invited to practice the long standing tradition of reciting the rosary as part of our prayer life. The rosary is one of the most traditional forms of prayer we have in our Church. Although the origins of the rosary are sketchy evidence exists from the Middle Ages that strings of beads were used to count Our Fathers and Hail Marys. The structure of the rosary gradually evolved between the 12th and 15th centuries. During the 16th century, the structure of the five-decade rosary based on the three sets of mysteries prevailed. Tradition holds that St. Dominic devised the rosary as we know it today. Perhaps this month can provide the opportunity for those who have drifted from this prayer form or are not familiar with it welcome it into their experience. Families may wish to pray the rosary together as part of evening or bed time prayers.

It is not too late; our parish faith formation programs are beginning again. Registration is continuing for our grade school Religious Education Program. Registration for the High School Confirmation program is ongoing. Our O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) program is for adults wishing to become Catholic or those who have been baptized but wish to receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation will begin today. No need to register for the OCIA program. For additional information on any of these programs please contact the parish office.

Fr. Ed McNulty, Pastor

Stewardship

Do It Now!

Anyone who has ever had to deal with teenagers knows the foot-dragging that can go on over a simple request to do something. "Mark, please take the garbage out;" "Just let me finish this video game!" or "Joanna, you promised to walk the dog;" "Not right now;" "Can't it wait?" "I'll do it in a minute!" To their frustration, parents discover that an adolescent "minute" can last for hours, while the young person learns that the great strategy for escaping what one dislikes doing now is promising to do it later. In today's Gospel Jesus tells of two sons asked by their father to work in his vineyard. The one who said "Later" actually went and did the work, while the other agreed to go but did not. To our surprise, Jesus is not concerned about which son in the story procrastinated, but about the larger issue of how people were responding to his teaching. As we know from many Gospel passages, even Jesus' closest disciples sometimes had difficulty paying attention to him, and grappled with the meaning of his words. And in the places Jesus visited, the people who thought of themselves as good Jews were reluctant to respond to him or even turned away from him entirely. The people whom the "good" Jews shunned, such as tax collectors and prostitutes, were not only hearing Jesus but immediately following him. They had grasped a great truth: wholeheartedly doing God's will is of far greater importance than simply following religious laws and commandments, and offers an inner freedom and peace of heart like nothing else. For whatever reason, some of us go through the motions of being a Christian, but never take it to heart. Are you like this? What's making you drag your feet? Become a real disciple today.

Rosary Maker's Guild Thanks You

The Rosary Makers Guild extend their thanks to all of our Rosary Makers who assembled 1,000+ World Missions-style rosaries in honor of the Beatification of Venerable Bishop Fulton J. Sheen on September 24, 2026. Bishop Sheen made each decade a different color to represent a different continent of the world where Missionaries bring the Good News of Jesus. The ministries who participated were from Wednesday Night Bible Study and Raising Saints Mom's Bible Study, including their young children. Our Rosary Maker's Guild could not have reached our pledge of 1,000 without you. The goal of The Pontifical World Mission Societies was for 75,000 rosaries for participants attending the Beatification Mass in St. Louis. God bless you all for being part of this endeavor!
