Church of St. Mary Magdalene

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME OCTOBER 4, 2026

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people. “Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, ‘They will respect my son.’ But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.’ They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?” They answered him, “He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times.” Jesus said to them, “Did you never read in the scriptures:

> ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been do and it is wonderful in our eyes’?

Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit. Change your minds and believe him.”

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scriptural Reflection

God's relationship with people is at the heart of both the first reading and the Gospel, but there is a difference. In Isaiah, destruction comes to the vineyard; in the Gospel, it comes to those entrusted with the care of the vineyard.

Isaiah's song highlights the people's failure—the house of Israel and the people of Judah—to bear fruit, to provide the Lord who has lovingly tended this vineyard with anything more than wild grapes, that is, bloodshed and violence against each other. Because of this, the owner will turn his back on them, no longer giving care but letting it be trampled underfoot, no longer pruning or hoeing, but allowing thorns and briars to take over. This song is demanding conversion.

In Jesus' parable, the focus is on those entrusted with the care of the vineyard. Jesus addresses the chief priests and the elders in Jerusalem, not only criticizing their failure to care for the people adequately, but also their rejection of those God sent to call them to conversion. The parable calls all religious leaders to remember that authority is for service.

Bearing fruit in our lives, being true and honorable, just and pure, lovely and gracious is the fruit God desires from all, as Paul reminds the Philippians. God's people, but especially their leaders, have a responsibility to bear fruit. No one is let off the hook. God expects a return for love so lavishly given.

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday has been designated Respect for Life Sunday. This provides us with the opportunity to pause and reflect on our responsibility as Catholics to live and to promote a "culture of life". In this time of continued social debate on issues such as abortion on demand, capital punishment, stem cell research, potential human cloning and euthanasia, it may be helpful for us to be aware of the words of Pope John Paul II who wrote the following in his Apostolic Letter entitled At The Beginning Of The Third Millennium: "A special commitment is needed with regard to certain aspects of the Gospel's radical message which are often less well understood, even to the point of making the Church's presence unpopular, but which nevertheless must be a part of her mission of charity. I am speaking of the duty to be committed to respect for the life of every human being, from conception until natural death. Likewise, the service of humanity leads us to insist, in season and out of season, that those using the latest advances of science, especially in the field of biotechnology, must never disregard fundamental ethical requirements by invoking a questionable solidarity which eventually leads to discriminating between one life and another and ignoring the dignity which belongs to every human being."

Each October since 1973, the Catholic Church in the United States observes Respect Life Month and focuses on reflecting more deeply on the dignity and gift of human life. This year, the theme chosen is Mary, Mother of Life. "Our Blessed Mother is our model for upholding the sanctity of all human life in every stage and circumstance. We entrust all our efforts to protect mothers and babies to her motherly care, which we greatly need at this time," said Bishop Daniel E. Thomas, chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Committee on Pro-Life Activities, in a statement inviting the faithful into prayer, deeper reflection, and action during the month of October. "Today, with easier access to abortion pills, the abortion rate is tragically climbing, along with increased health risks," said Bishop Thomas. "This means that more women, many of whom have been misinformed about the nature and risks of the abortion pill, will have an abortion alone at home, without any medical supervision. It also sets up additional opportunities for exploitation by violent partners or human traffickers. These affronts to human dignity demand our response." Through a focused effort of prayer and action to stop the spread of the abortion pill, the Committee on Pro-Life Activities has encouraged the faithful to learn about the dangers of the abortion pill and take action by sending messages to pharmacies and pharmaceutical companies.

"I thank the many thousands of Catholics across the country who have embraced the nationwide invitation to prayer and action on abortion pills, and I ask that we continue our prayers and advocacy throughout the month of October. Please join us at Respect Life Prayer and Action," Bishop Thomas said.

Stewardship

Ours

We live in a time when politicians, heads of corporations, bankers, and others have acted with outrageous greed and selfishness, and there have been devastating consequences. Add to that the troubles in our Church, and we wonder if there has ever been a worse time than this. The answer is yes: in the fourteenth century the bubonic plague killed half the population of Europe; in 1960, forty million people died of famine in China. The list of violent, tyrannical rulers stretches from the Roman Emperor Caligula and Ivan the Terrible to Hitler, Stalin, and Mao Tse Tung. The world harbors all kinds of evil, and nowadays we hear about it very fast. But there is much more room for hope than we might think. Matthew was writing his Gospel for a community of Jewish Christians whose new faith set them apart from other Jews. All were living under the oppressive rule of Roman conquerors. The vineyard Matthew speaks of is like the world. God resembles the landowner, who created it and made it fruitful. So who are the evil tenants? For Matthew's community it was these Jewish leaders who grasped at power, collaborated with Rome, and cooperated in the killing of God's Son. But the Kingdom cannot be taken by force, and those who wreak havoc in God's world will face God's justice in this life or the next. In the meantime, it is our task to tend the Lord's vineyard. We can each contribute, from the smallest deeds of charity in our own daily lives, to exercising morality and ethics in the work place, to acting as responsible citizens, and striving to welcome and love the forgotten, the lost, and the most oppressed among us. Never lose heart and never give up; the Kingdom is ours.
