St. Mary Magdalene Mission Statement

We, the Eucharistic Community of St. Mary Magdalene, are called to conversion in Jesus Christ.

Our community life and worship are based on the Bible, the Sacraments, and the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Living the love of Christ impacts our moral, intellectual, and religious life, and makes us a caring community that brings hope to our families, neighborhood, and society.

Jesus Is Here - Come As You Are

Jesus is always available. Pray or sit and rest or have a little chat. He wants to be with you. He IS with you. Whatever your heart is feeling, He wants to meet you there. The church is open until 4:00pm weekdays and later on weekends. Come and see. Spend some time with Him.

Welcome!

No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church,
No matter what your current family or marital situation,
No matter what your past or present situation,
No matter what your personal history,
age, background or race,
No matter what your own self image or self-esteem.
You are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved,
and respected at St. Mary Magdalene Church!

We are so happy to have you here!

Living God's Word

We pray to recognize what it means to be a good citizen, giving to our country what is needed for the support of the common good. And we pray to discern wisely when loyalty to Christ and the building up of the kingdom of God may call for a response that challenges what civil authorities propose.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scriptural Reflection

In a country that has a strong commitment to separation of church and state, it is noteworthy that our money, both bills and coins, is inscribed with the words "In God We Trust." The history of this motto and its relation to our currency goes back to the Civil War. Changing it has never gotten much support. It serves as a helpful reminder about where our true security lies.

In the Gospel, the Pharisees, along with some supporters of the Roman regime called Herodians, get into the act of trying to trap Jesus into taking a stand that would get him in trouble with either the Roman authorities or his own people. But Jesus, as much the fox as Herod was reputed to be, slips out of their net by noting that there can be different loyalties without a loss of priorities.

Jesus calls on them to produce the idolatrous coin that no devout Jew should carry, since it declared Caesar to be a god. Then he advises them to return to the emperor the coin that bears his image but to return to God what bears God's image, that is, themselves, made in the image of God.

A new order is revealed when we give God's image back to God by our words and deeds, showing God's image to others. When this happens, the motto "In God We Trust" becomes not merely stamped on paper or branded on copper, but encountered in living flesh and blood.

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Pius XI first instituted this celebration in the Church in 1926 and the 100 years since have provided us with the opportunity to recall that the missionary work of the Church is not only the responsibility of those serving in missionary countries but is the vocation of all the faithful. In a past message for World Mission Sunday Pope Emeritus Benedict wrote: On the occasion of the World Mission Sunday, I would like to invite you to reflect on the continuing urgency to proclaim the Gospel also in our times. The missionary mandate continues to be an absolute priority for all baptized persons who are called to be "servants and apostles of Christ Jesus" at the beginning of this millennium. My venerable Predecessor, the Servant of God Paul VI, already stated in the Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Nuntiandi: "Evangelizing is in fact the grace and vocation proper to the Church, her deepest identity" (No. 14). As a model of this apostolic commitment, I would like to point to Saint Paul in particular, the Apostle of the nations, because this year we are celebrating a special jubilee dedicated to him. It is the Pauline Year which offers us the opportunity to become familiar with this famous Apostle who received the vocation to proclaim the Gospel to the Gentiles, according to what the Lord had announced to him: "'Go, I shall send you far away to the Gentiles" (Acts 22:21). How can we not take the opportunity that this special jubilee offers to the local Churches, the Christian communities and the individual faithful to propagate the proclamation of the Gospel to the ends of the world, the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes (Cf. Rm 1:16)?

The month of November is fast approaching and therefore envelopes are available near the Church entrance for those who may wish to enroll a departed loved one in our All Souls Novena of Masses. You may drop your envelope in the basket on Sunday or return them directly to our parish office by October 31st.

I hope you are planning to join us next Saturday, October 24th for our Fall Festival and Chili Cook-off. This is a great opportunity to come together as a community and enjoy some fall spirit, chili and other great food and games. Its not too late to let us know that you will be there. There is a QR code for the festival to learn more about the fun and to prepay your meal.

The month of October is annually observed by the Catholic Church in the United States as Respect Life Month. We are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. As USCCB President Cardinal Daniel DiNardo expressed, "the Body of Christ is lacerated." At such a time as this, we become even more aware of the need for messengers of God's love and instruments of His healing.

We realize again, with renewed urgency, our personal call to help others encounter God's transforming, life-giving love and to defend the sanctity of every person's life, at every stage and in every circumstance. This year's Respect Life theme is "Every Life: Cherished, Chosen, Sent," highlighting our call to build a culture of life as missionary disciples. Drawing upon the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe and St. Juan Diego, this theme is briefly unpacked in a short reflection. I humbly invite you to read and reflect on it this Respect Life Month (www.usccb.org/respect-life-reflection). (There are also many other resources at www.usccb.org/respectlife that are available for use this month and throughout the year.) In his first letter to the Corinthians, Saint Paul tells us,

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it" (1 Cor 12:12,26). We are called and sent to be messengers of God's love, treating one another as cherished and chosen by Him. In doing so, we help build a culture that respects all human life. The Body of Christ needs you. The world needs you.

Pastor

Stewardship

The Road Taken

Week after week, we are offered a choice to declare to others and to our God whom we belong to—the small god of money and possessions, or the great God whom Jesus called Abba (Daddy or Papa in Aramaic). Some of us drop into the basket what we think is good enough, or what we will never miss, or whatever is in our pocket. How about a different approach? For every financial blessing first give thanks, whether for a paycheck, an allowance, investment interest, bonus, or even a lottery win. Choose a portion and share it with others: half to the Church, and half to good cause you favor. In gratitude for God's overwhelming love, we give these "first fruits" rather than what's left over after we've done what we want. Modern research shows that people who give generously tend to live happier and longer lives. So become a grateful giver and a true steward of God's constant blessings.

Living Stewardship Now

Did you know that the Vatican has a yearly operating budget less than half the budget of a major university? God's work—in the parish, the diocese, and around the world—depends on us. Is your giving generous, or the least you can spare?

All Souls Day Remembrance

Sunday, November 1st at 6:00pm Mass, we will celebrate All Souls Day, a day when we traditionally remember our beloved deceased. Please join us for athis special Mass where we will pray for all the faithful departed and especially for those members of our parish family who have died since last November. You can find Novena envelopes at the entrance to the church. Novena begins on Tuesday, November 3rd.

Pictures of our dearly departed will also be displayed in the vestibule of the church during the month of November. If you would like your loved one to be remembered in this way, please bring a copy of a photograph, 3" x 5" or smaller, to the Parish Office, or place it in the marked box in the vestibule of the church by Friday, October 30th. Please be sure that this is a copy as it will not be returned. Those who have submitted pictures in the past need not resubmit them as they are on file.

World Mission Sunday This Week
"One Christ, United in Mission"

World Mission Sunday (WMS) is a special day celebrated by the Catholic Church around the world to recognize and support the Church's missionary work. Each year, the Pope chooses a theme for World Mission Sunday. This year's theme, "One in Christ, United in Mission". This is the best way we can help the Holy Father and share in the universal mission of the Church to spread the faith through prayer and sacrifice. We may not be able to GO to the missions, but we can SEND to the missions both our prayers as well as the material means they need so much.

Envelopes can be found at the entrance of the church.
