THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH

DECEMBER 29, 2024

The Boy Jesus at the Temple

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

Living God's Word

The feast of the Holy Family gives us pause to ponder the phenomenon of family. If we can duplicate the love Mary and Joseph and Jesus had for each other, there's no telling what the positive and rich effects might be.

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

One of the all-time great Christmas movies is It's a Wonderful Life! The classic scene is the final one. The townspeople are gathering in George Bailey's living room. They're pouring money onto a table, all with the intention of rescuing George from financial ruin. It's not long before George's brother enters the picture. Having heard of the hard times George had been going through, he secured a leave from the military, hopped a plane, and flew all day and night to make it to Bedford Falls. He wanted to be of help. Seeing the people and the mountain of money, he raises his glass and toasts his brother, "the richest man in the world!"

George Bailey was rich, all right, but not because he was suddenly inundated with money. He was rich because he had family and friends who loved him and cared about him. There's much to be said for the benefits and blessings of family.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Happy New Year! January first has been traditionally designated as the World Day for Peace. It is with this in mind that for over fifty years the Popes have been releasing a message for this special occasion. I would like to share with you (in part) the message that Pope Francis has released for 2025.

The Holy Father writes: At the dawn of this New Year given to us by our heavenly Father, a year of Jubilee in the spirit of hope, I offer heartfelt good wishes of peace to every man and woman. I think especially of those who feel downtrodden, burdened by their past mistakes, oppressed by the judgment of others and incapable of perceiving even a glimmer of hope for their own lives. Upon everyone I invoke hope and peace, for this is a Year of Grace born of the Heart of the Redeemer! Throughout this year, the Catholic Church celebrates the Jubilee, an event that fills hearts with hope. The "jubilee" recalls an ancient Jewish practice, when, every forty-ninth year, the sound of a ram's horn (in Hebrew, jobel) would proclaim a year of forgiveness and freedom for the entire people (cf. Lev 25:10). This solemn proclamation was meant to echo throughout the land (cf. Lev 25:9) and to restore God's justice in every aspect of life: in the use of the land, in the possession of goods and in relationships with others, above all the poor and the dispossessed. The blowing of the horn reminded the entire people, rich and poor alike, that no one comes into this world doomed to oppression: all of us are brothers and sisters, sons and daughters of the same Father, born to live in freedom, in accordance with the Lord's will (cf. Lev 25:17, 25, 43, 46, 55). In our day too, the Jubilee is an event that inspires us to seek to establish the liberating justice of God in our world. In place of the ram's horn, at the start of this Year of Grace we wish to hear the "desperate plea for help" that, like the cry of the blood of Abel (cf. Gen 4:10), rises up from so many parts of our world – a plea that God never fails to hear. We for our part feel bound to cry out and denounce the many situations in which the earth is exploited and our neighbors oppressed.... At the beginning of this year, then, we desire to heed the plea of suffering humankind in order to feel called, together and as individuals, to break the bonds of injustice and to proclaim God's justice... The celebration of the Jubilee spurs us to make a number of changes in order to confront the present state of injustice and inequality by reminding ourselves that the goods of the earth are meant not for a privileged few, but for everyone. We do well to recall the words of Saint Basil of Caesarea: "Tell me, what things belong to you? Where did you find them to make them part of your life? ... Did you not come forth naked from the womb of your mother? Will you not return naked to the ground? Where did your property come from? If you say that it comes to you naturally by luck, you would deny God by not recognizing the Creator and being grateful to the Giver".

Without gratitude, we are unable to recognize God's gifts. Yet in his infinite mercy the Lord does not abandon sinful humanity, but instead reaffirms his gift of life by the saving forgiveness offered to all through Jesus Christ. ... Lord, grant us your peace! This is my prayer to God as I now offer my cordial good wishes for the New Year to the Heads of State and Government, to the leaders of International Organizations, to the leaders of the various religions and to every person of good will.

Fr. Ed McNulty,
Pastor

STEWARDSHIP

For The Love Of God

Today we focus our attention on Mary, Joseph, and the child Jesus, and the role of family in our lives. All children are God's creation and so, if you have children, you know that their upbringing is a huge responsibility, involving lots of hard work along with times of anxiety and distress as well as real moments of joy. You can easily relate to the story of Mary and Joseph and the frantic search for their missing child. You can understand the mixture of immense relief and annoyance when they find him after a long search. But maybe your family is not that ideal family most of us wish for, but is separated or divided by distance, disagreements, or divorce. Perhaps distance can be bridged by more letters, e-mails, phone calls, or visits; disagreements by sincere attempts to reconcile; and divorce—for all its pains and griefs—by learning to love again. Healing the hurts begins in love. There are also many people among us who are single or who cannot have children, and others who have few or no family ties left. The kind of love called agape by the early Christians, sometimes translated as "charity" in the scriptures, is a Greek word that expresses a love greater than family love or sexual love; it is the love that God has for us and wants us to share with the world around us. If we each become aware that God loves us as beloved children, we can spread that love to those who are unloved in our words, in our deeds, and in our attitude. Don't wait, start now!
